MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, inasmuch as there has been a committee appointed to consider the subject with which this bill deals, I move that the bill be recommitted to the Committee on Counties for further study.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, Senate Bill 141 is a measure dealing with a matter of primary importance, a measure that this House has been awaiting from the Senate, a measure upon which there is general agreement that there should be legislative action. There is no reason, no urge that this be sent back to committee. Indeed of all the bills on the calendar, this is the one bill that should not go back to committee, because this is the one bill upon which the taxpayers are looking to us for action.

I hope that the House will not send this bill back to committee.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill in its present form is exactly the same as the Pearson bill, which was amended by this House.

When I presented the amendments to that bill, I spoke on the amendments and it was the opinion of this House that those amendments should be adopted. This bill as it now stands is practically the same as the Pearson bill before the amendments were adopted.

There were and there are quite a number of bills dealing with this subject, and for that reason this House saw fit to have a committee appointed which would deal with all of the bills which had to do with the abatement of tax penalties. I agree with the gentleman from Cambria that the taxpayers should have some relief from the excessive interest and excessive penalties which are now on certain of the taxes, but I do not agree that a person should be permitted to pay 1930 taxes as late as 1939 without paying a cent's worth of interest or a cent's worth of taxes, and I think the committee which was appointed by this House to consider another similar bill should have an opportunity to consider them and to work out a plan which will be satisfactory and which will be fair and to submit that plan to this House to be voted upon and then adopted.

Therefore, I think that this bill should be referred to the committee pending the action of the committee which is now dealing with this subject.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House. I submit to the membership of the House that the members of this House are quite competent to take jurisdiction of this measure, which has come over to us from the Senate after careful consideration and the bill being within our jurisdiction I am convinced that the interest of the taxpayers will be conserved keeping the bill within the jurisdiction of the House.

Mr. REISING. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this is one opportunity that this House has to do something for the distressed and delinquent taxpayers. It would appear to me that the good judgment of each and every Representative can plainly see the necessity for helping the distressed taxpayers, and it would be far better until nineteen thirty-nine to get these taxes than not to get them at all, which will be the case if we do not do something that will be helpful.

I would ask, after all the things that have been said here since the beginning of this session, that we attempt at least once if never again to do something for the man that needs to have something done for him, and that is the fellow who is trying to save his home and his farm and his business at this time in the face of the heavy tax load that has been placed upon him. I will ask you on both sides of the House, who have had much to say with regard to your desires, to help the fellow that is down. Let us be serious with this matter and do the things that are necessary to be done to help the fellow that is down, and that is the taxpayer.

I will ask that we do not put this bill back into Committee but let it stay here and let us pass it as soon as we can.

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I merely want to pass the information on here that last week the Speaker of this House, in response to a resolution, appointed five members of this House to act with a similar Committee appointed by the Senate for the purpose of discussing all the tax abatement bills now before both Houses. There are seven of those bills. This is not the first tax abatement bill before the House. There are two of them that have passed this House and are now awaiting action by the Senate. There are other Senate bills to come over to this House. It was felt by all interested parties that this committee would get together and approve one bill or two bills applying to the whole state including Philadelphia or excluding Philadelphia, to meet their peculiar situation and to recommend one bill or two bills to both House for passage.

The Committee appointed last week meets tomorrow at two o'clock in the Senate. The sponsor of this Senate Bill is Senator Huffman who is a member of that Committee. From the House on that Committee there are Representatives Burke, VanSickle and Pearson on the Democratic side and Mr. Wood and myself on the Republican side. It would seem to me under those circumstances that we might very well postpone action on this bill with a view to ascertaining whether or not Senator Huffman himself desires the passage of the bill.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Woodside.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Dauphin permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, would the gentleman from Dauphin be content to place this bill upon the postponed calendar until the Committee, to which he has referred, has reported, instead of sending it back to Committee?

Mr. WOODSIDE. I would, Mr. Speaker.

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, I withdraw my previous motion and move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

The motion was agred to.

RECONSIDERATION OF HOUSE BILL NO. 1737

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 1737, Printer's No. 515, entitled:

An Act To amend the title and the act approved the twenty-eighth day of April one thousand eight hundred ninety-nine (Pamphlet Laws one hundred seventeen) entitled "An act making it unlawful for any person to hold himself out or advertise himself as a lawyer attorney-at-law or counsellor-at-law in any county of the State of Pennsylvania unless duly admitted to practice by a court of record of any county in this Commonwealth and providing a penalty therefor" as amended by extending the scope of the title defining and further prohibiting the practice of law and providing additional penalties including the forfeiture of corporate charters for violations of the act.

was defeated on third reading and final passage on Tuesday, April 9, 1935, be reconsidered.

NAYS—0

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1747 entitled:

An Act making the insurer of defendant in an action in torts involving the operation of a motor vehicle a party defendant with the defendant and providing for the effect of such joinder

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. McDEVITT. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Ominsky, explain the provisions of this bill.

Mr. OMINSKY. I will, Mr. Speaker. House 1747, makes the insurer of the defendant in an action in court, that is where an accident is involved, in the operation of a motor vehicle a party defendant with the defendant and providing for the effect of such joinder. In other words this bill joins any company which insures the policyholder in case of an accident, so that in the event there is a judgment of credit against a defendant the insurance company will not be able to say afterwards that they had some excuse for not paying the judgment. It also provides that the insurance company may try the issue as to whether they are liable under the policy before the question of the accident will be tried in the courts.

I believe this is a social and progressive measure that should be enacted by this House, and the Senate, if possible, because it will give the policyholders their money's worth. In other words as it is at the present time, even though you pay for it, there may be a possibility that after a judgment is obtained against the insured, the company will try to get out from under and not pay the claim and thus leave the defendant, who has paid for insurance, with a judgment against him.

It will also prevent the courts from declaring mistrials in case the words "insurance company" are used during the trial of a case. Under the present law if through some inadvertense, that there is insurance involved in the case the courts must declare a mistrial. This bill will present the recurring of mistrials and in that way avert many actions which otherwise would not come up.

This bill would also require juries to give proper verdicts under the circumstances. As it stands today, juries know practically in every case that comes up for litigation where insurance companies are involved. This bill will not cause them to give any greater verdicts as some of the opponents of the bill have mentioned will happen because of this bill. As a matter of fact, in compensation claims the insurance company at the present time is joined in with the defendant, and I think this is another piece of progressive and social legislation which commends itself to the approval of everyone in this House. I, therefore, ask every member of this House to vote for this bill.

Mr. McDEVITT. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the gentleman from Philadelphia evidently is not entirely familiar with the procedure or the provisions of an insurance policy. A liability insurance policy for property damage or anything of that character is purely a contract between the man who takes out the policy and the company and any third party who might suffer injury either personally or damage to his property who has any interest at all in the policy and the company pays him no money until such time that there shall be a judgment against the defendant and not against the insurance company. The insurance company agrees to indemnify the insured against loss. It also agrees to defend him.

There was a remark made that the insurance company will have no excuse for refusing to pay and thereby the insured would receive better protection. That is hardly the case in actual practice, because if the insured complies with the policy, and furthermore if the insurance company wants to defend then the insurance company must necessarily pay any judgment that provided, for, provided, of course, they are solvent.

Now, the other point, that there might be some mystery to the issue or that there might be a mistrial. If the gentleman from Philadelphia is familiar with the Supreme Court decisions in the matter, he knows that if the defendant in any way tries to take advantage of the situation and opens it up himself so that as a result there might be a mistrial and in that way stop the issue, the Court may allow the case to proceed and simply tell the jury to disregard the remarks. Now, in ten years in Philadelphia County, where there are probably more cases tried than in any other county in this state, I don't believe that I have heard six cases which resulted in mistrials because of the mention of the words "insurance company." It is an understood fact, all the witnesses know, that it will happen and out of thousands of cases the word is never put forward.

If you feel it necessary or that it will be helpful to anybody to have the name of the insurance company as a party defendant and thereby think the jury will render a greater verdict, you are, of course, not taking any money from the insurance company because they are simply going to raise the premium.

I think it is just about time that this House realizes that anyone who has the right to fix rates is not going to suffer that loss, because if they suffer a loss in the first instance they are going to put up their rates. There are many cars operating on the streets of Philadelphia that don't have insurance because the people can not afford to pay for it. Therefore, if you are going to bring about a condition that is unfair and unwarranted, thereby causing the raising of the rates, you are simply going to have more cars on the streets that are without insurance and the pedestrians are going to have less protection.

I can see no justification for this bill and I can not see where it is fair at all. We have gone on this way for many years trying a case between the plaintiff and the defendant, why we should bring the insurance company in; why by statute should we give a person a right which they don't have under the contract; why we should bring them in under a contract between two people is something I can't understand. I have not heard any reasons at all that would justify a bill of this character.

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. McDevitt.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. McDevitt, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McDEVITT. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. OMINSKY. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia tell the members of this House whether at any time he has defended cases on behalf of insurance companies?

Mr. McDEVITT. Mr. Speaker, I, of course, knew that that question would be asked. Lawyers are not allowed to advertise, but I will say that we have one of the largest Court practices in Philadelphia, representing plaintiffs, defendants, insurance companies, railroads, poor people, rich people, and everybody. If that has anything to do with this bill, I can't see it.

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House. Regarding the raising of the rates, I might say just one word, that in every measure, progressive measure or social measure that we try to enact in this House there is always heard the cry that it will raise rates or that we will have to pay more. I say that if they give you full value for what you are paying for there would be no necessity, after this bill is passed, to raise the rates.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

NAYS—0

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1790, entitled:

An Act transferring money from the Motor License Fund to the General Fund

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TROUT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Ruth.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Ruth, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. RUTH. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TROUT. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Ruth, whether this transferring of funds from the motor license fund to the general fund is anticipated revenue?

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, it is anticipated revenue from the registration fees of trucks and busses and from the port of entry bill.

Mr. TROUT. Have the bills providing for this revenue passed finally?

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, all but the port of entry bill, House Bill No. 1631. The others have passed and are in the Senate.

Mr. TROUT. Mr. Speaker, I would like to take this occasion to place certain facts before this body as well as before the general public—facts which are important at this time. There is apparently much misunderstanding about our State's financial condition and about some of our special funds in particular. I refer specifically to the Motor License Fund.

Many people have the mistaken idea that the State collects millions of dollars annually from the motorists and in turn spends this money solely for the pleasure of the automobilist. Based upon this erroneous idea, proposoals are made to tap the motor Fund without full knowledge of what such action really means, without any consideration for the dangers and the penalties involved, without any thought of the thousands upon thousands of Pennsylvania citizens, who would be forced out of an honest job onto relief rolls by such action.

Gentlemen, let us consider some of the real facts in the case.

You have seen the statement that the biennial income of the Motor License Fund will be $113,000,000. Do you know that that figure is an estimate only, which may or may not be fulfilled? Do those who advocate taking large sums from this amount realize that it is made up in part by anticipated Federal grants for highways over which the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania has no jurisdiction whatsoever, and which must be matched by other funds? Do they realize that overhead and operating expenditures—the money spent to hire men to repair the holes in the road YOU drive, to paint white lines around curves, to cinder icy roads, clear away the snow and drag the farmer's dirt road and such necessary work—that all this requires about 2/3 of the entire income?

I said that the State was required to match ordinary regular Federal aid allotments. When this has been done, it is doubtful if even $10,000,000 per year of State highway funds will remain. Mark that figure well. I have mentioned penalties. I quote from Regulation 19 of the regulations for the use of Federal highway funds, issued last February by the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States.

"Section 1—As soon as practicable after the approval of these rules and regulations, the Secretary shall determine, as of June 18, 1934, what amounts of the revenue derived from State motor vehicle registration fees, licenses, gasoline taxes, and other special taxes on motor vehicle owners and operators in the various states are required by the laws of each state to be applied to highway purposes, including the retirement of bonds for the payment of which such revenues have been pledged. If he shall find at any time that lesser amounts of such revenues in any state are required by its laws to be applied to such purposes than were required to be so applied by the laws of such states on June 18, 1934, he shall take such action as he shall deem necessary to comply with the provisions of Section 12 of the Act of June 18, 1934 (48 Stat. 995) by reducing the apportionment of Federal funds to such state by not to exceed one-third of the amount to which it would otherwise be entitled for any fiscal year in which such finding may be made."

I repeat, "One-third of all Federal funds for highways may be withheld." My investigations show that Pennsylvania will be allotted some 50 odd millions of dollars for highways out of the recently enacted Federal work relief bill. If we followed the mistaken advice of those who would tap the Motor Fund, we would automatically be penalized over 17 millions of dollars. And, furthermore, conferences with the Federal Bureau of Public Roads officials show that if the loans made from the Motor and Liquid Fuels Tax Funds are not repaid, there is a strong likelihood that we shall lose an additional $3,000,000.

Tapping the Motor Fund, as is so glibly proposed, would then cost us a total of $20,000,000, for which we could get $20,000,000 over a two-year period. I say that, were there no other reason why these funds should be left intact and the loans repaid, the price alone of $20,000,000 is too high for any reasonable consideration. It would be throwing away $20,000,000, which could be used to provide honest jobs for the unemployed; throwing it away for what? For the PRIVILEGE of again throwing men out of work by shutting down on the State's own highway program.

Highway construction is the best known form of relieving unemployment. Do you know that after careful study, the Federal Bureau of Public Roads established the fact that 91c out of every dollar spent on high-type road construction goes into salaries and wages? Road building makes jobs in almost every Pennsylvania industry. Behind every man you see on the job are from two to five other men supplying him with materials and tools; men in the mines and mills and quarries; men on the railroads and trucks; men in the oil fields, in the paper mills. Five carloads of coal are burned up in producing the cement for one mile of concrete road. I say that to deprive these men of work and throw them upon relief rolls is un-American. Our problem is to bring labor and industry closer together.

There are thousands of miles of our main roads that should be rebuilt. Death traps in the form of narrow bridges and dangerous curves and especially grade crossings should be eliminated. Bottle-necks and narrow city streets cry for improvement. Yet we are advised to spend this money for direct relief.

Will more than 91c out the relief dollar reach the laboring man? Will the citizens of Pennsylvania receive some lasting benefit from money spent on direct relief?

I say, gentlemen, I believe that the diverting of funds from the motor fund to the general fund is contrary to the best interests of the citizens of Pennsylvania, and I think this bill should be defeated.

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, I do not believe that this is diverting funds from the motor license fund. It does not take anything out of the fund that is in there, but that which comes in by present legislation. It is only taking out money that shall come from the increased registration fees of trucks and busses and from the port of entry. It is only the increased taxes that will be taken out to replace the money that was taken out of the motor fund last year and replaced this year. I think we should all vote for this bill. It is an innocent bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

SENATE

TUESDAY, April 16, 1935.

The Senate met at 1 o'clock P. M.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Thomas Kennedy) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. William E. Howard, D. D., offered the following prayer:

At this season of the year, O God, our hearts are mystified and thrilled by the thought and fact of life. Winter, the season of death, is being transformed into the life of spring. Brown fields are becoming verdant; bare trees are showing buds soon to burst into foliage; dreary, lonely hills and mountains give promise of far-reaching vistas of beauty and grandeur; birds are rendering a prelude to the chorus of matchless music they are soon to sing.

Our Father, we cannot solve the mystery of life; whence it comes or whither it goes we know not, except that it emanates from Thee. We have faith to believe that the winter of human death, like nature's death in winter time, shall bring us truer, higher life as the fruition of our existence.

Grant us grace so to spend the time allotted to us here that we may enter into a more glorious and blessed life when the Sun of Eternity breaks through the clouds of Time.

Graciously strengthen this Senate for meeting the tasks facing it this day. Amen.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair has discussed the point of order raised by the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, with both sides, and after reading the rule the Chair is of the opinion that the point of order is well taken, that the resolution is privileged, and as such, is entitled to immediate consideration by the Senate, and a vote; and that to refer it to a committee would require a two-thirds vote on the motion. The Chair so rules.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, in view of the importance of the ruling just handed down by the Chair, as it may be held to apply to future resolutions, I respectfully appeal from the decision of the Chair.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, in connection with the appeal from the decision of the Chair I have just taken, I desire to file the appeal in writing.

The appeal was read as follows:

To the President of the Senate of Pennsylvania:

I, Clarence J. Buckman, Senator of the Tenth District of Pennsylvania, do hereby respectfully appeal from the decision of the Chair in sustaining the point of order just raised by the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, wherein you decided that a two-thirds vote of the Senate is necessary to commit to committee, the resolution relating to the date of adjournment for the present week.

CLARENCE J. BUCKMAN.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I second the motion.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. BUCKMAN and Mr. CLARK.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

| Batchelor, | Ealy, | Norton, | Staudenmeier, |
| Bean, | Gelder, | Owlett, | Thompson, |
| Bennett, | Graff, | Pierson, | (Westmoreland) |
| Buckman, | Howell, | Reed, | Woodward, |
| Chapman, | Hunsicker, | (Dauphin) | Ziesenheim, |
| Clark, | Mallery, | Shapiro, | Homsher, Pres. Pro. Tem. |

The PRESIDENT. On the question of sustaining the decision of the Chair, the "yeas" are twenty-two (22) and the "nays" twenty-six (26). The decision of the President is, therefore, not sustained.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order. Since the subject matter of the point of order was upon a matter involving the necessity of a two-thirds vote of this Senate on the appeal from the President's decision on the point of order, the order must be sustained by a two-thirds vote of the Senate.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair rules that the point of order is not well taken; the decision requires a majority vote of a quorum of the Senate.

RESOLUTIONS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Mr. RUTH. RESOLUTION No. 123.

In the House of Representatives, April 15, 1935.

Whereas, William Penn as Proprietary came to Pennsylvania and organized the provincial and local government; sat as first Governor on the Provincial Council, Assembly and Courts, exemplifying in these executive and legislative functions the principles of democracy which have had perpetual embodiment not only in the sovereign State he founded, but in the Nation as well; evidenced his statesmenship by promoting:

1. The idea of religious toleration practiced on a greater and grander scale than ever before, where the oppressed of all nations should have freedom and the opportunity to worship God according to the dictates of their own conscience.
2. The establishment of a real democracy as seen in his various frames of government, the latest of which, the Charter of Privileges of 1701, served the colony for seventy-five years, and the new Constitution of the State of Pennsylvania of 1776 is largely modeled upon it.
3. Just and fair dealings with subordinate peoples.
4. Humane and just treatment of criminals, particularly in the infliction of capital punishment.
5. The suggestion of one central mint and a common value of coin throughout the American colonies.
6. The settlement of the boundaries with France so as to give England the South side of the St. Lawrence and the Great Lakes, which settlement eventually established the present northern boundaries of the United States.
7. The idea of federation of the colonies with suggestions which later were embodied in the Constitution of the United States.
8. The idea of a Parliament of Nations.

Therefore be it,

Resolved, That this Assembly, in session this 15th day of April, 1935, endorses the submission to the Electors of the Hall of Fame for Great Americans the name of Pennsylvania's first Governor, William Penn, statesman, for a place in such Hall of Fame. Recommending to the Electorate honorable consideration of his contribution to the political thought of his time rarely, if ever, equaled.

And it is hereby

Resolved Further, That the Governor of the Commonwealth be requested to forward forthwith a copy of this Resolution to "The College of Electors of the Hall of Fame," Dr. Robert Underwood Johnson, Director, 745 Fifth Avenue, New York City.

Referred to the Committee on Education.

By Messrs. COAKLEY, VanSICKLE and SINWELL.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. NOTHNAGLE. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Delaware will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. NOTHNAGLE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it may be news possibly to some of you that the city I represent, Chester, is the first settlement in the state of Pennsylvania. We pride ourselves on being originators.

We have with us here this morning the first citizen of our town, our mayor, a former member of this House.

I ask Mr. Speaker, that he be given the privilege of the floor.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware Mr. Nothnagle, escort the gentleman from Chester, Mr. Ward, to the desk?

Mr. NOTHNAGLE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I have great pleasure in introducing to you the Honorable William Ward, Jr., mayor of the city of Chester and a member twenty-six years ago of this House.

REMARKS BY HON. Wm. WARD, JR.

Mr. WARD. Mr. Speaker and members of the House of Representatives, may I thank you, Mr. Speaker, for your courtesy in permitting me to come to the rostrum, and you, members of the House, for your generosity and for bearance for just a moment.

It is a distinctive honor and a pleasure again to be here in this splendid chamber and if but for a moment to participate in the proceedings.

A quarter of a century or more has gone since I sat as a member of this body, and the friendships formed and the recollections of the pleasant days still endure.

There are members on the floor af this House who were my colleagues in the long ago. A little delicacy on my part concerning ages prevents me from naming any gentlemen who were with me in the yesterdays. To those gentlemen who are here may I pleasantly suggest that on the right of the chambers sits one who was here with me some twenty-six years ago and then known to Speaker Frank B. McClain and Speaker John F. Cox as the fourth member from Delaware. We have been together forty years, the young lady and I, and we are still friends. I thank you indeed and will delay you no longer but I do want to say that I do appreciate your generosity and your courtesy, and to you, Mr. Speaker and members I wish you all health, happiness and good fortune in the many years that are to come to you.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the mayor of Chester for the kind remarks and kind wishes he has given to us this morning.

LEAVES OF ABSENCE

Mr. Piole asked and obtained leave of absence for Mr. PEARSON on account of illness.

Mr. J. L. SNYDER asked and obtained leave of absence for himself for the morning session for the purpose of attending a funeral.

STATEMENT BY MR. COLEMAN.

Mr. COLEMAN asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, last week I sat here and listened with rapt attention to the discussion relative to the relief situation in the state of Pennsylvania. I thoroughly enjoyed the matching of wits of the leadership on both sides of the House. As a matter of fact, the mastery of language, the depth of their thought, the canny knowledge of governmental affairs, the thorough grasp of budgetary requirements of the membership of this House have left me breathless, and because of my inexperience in matters of this sort, I have very religiously avoided being involved in these debates, and hence my presence here has been characterized almost entirely by profound silence, but the Bible tells us of a time to speak and a time to keep silent.

There is no member of this House with any semblance of reason and foresight who could not see, not the remote contingency, but the alarming condition that confronts the people in this Commonwealth.

We have been in session sixteen weeks and we are no nearer the requirements of the Federal Administrator of Relief than we were the day we stood in the front of this House and raised our right hands heavenward to take the solemn oath of office.

While I sat here and listened to the discussion, my mind went back reverently to the stirring days of 1917. I could sort of visualize the flower of Pennsylvania manhood marching off to war, marching down the principal streets of our great cities, through the neighboring towns and across the farms, and America threw her fresh strength into the ranks of freedom just in time to change the whole tide of the struggle, when the fate of the world hung in the balance, Pennsylvania's sons were on hand and they made their breasts a barrier to the enemy bullets, and many of them have returned with empty sleeves and empty eye sockets, baring mute evidences of the sacrifices they made on French soil.

I have run across a number of those men lately who are victims of the depression, and when you talk to them there is a sort of veiled expression that seems to say, "When the emergency arose in 1917, we endured hardships, we made the sacrifice, but when the emergency arose in 1935, the members of the General Assembly were found wanting."

What would Lincoln, the great emancipator, say if he were to come suddenly to life and see the tactics of the Republican controlled Senate? Lincoln, the man that always championed the cause of the poor and the needy, the man who said, "God must have loved the poor people, because he made so many of us."

When I mention the name of Lincoln I cannot help but feel with the poet,

"Awake, immortal heart, and breath again
Thy pulse of mercy into lesser men,
The pulse that beat in anguish for the slave,
That gave its own life blood to heal and save,
Awake and shame those hollow hearts that praise the dead,
And praising, would deny Thy people bread."

There has never been a time in the history of the world where stubbornness kept men apart that their differences could not be adjusted by the application of common sense. Whenever men get together regardless of their differences in a sort of conciliatory spirit, with a unity of thought and a unity of purpose, misunderstanding always passed away.

Let me call your attention to the action of the Governor of Ohio, which prompted this statement from me today. The Governor of Ohio on Saturday appealed to the citizenry of Ohio for nickels and dimes and quarters to run the Governor's office. Ohio, the great cradle of presidents, that gave to America some of her most illustrious sons, appealing to the charitable instincts of its citizenry to run the government. God forbid that the Governor of this great Commonwealth will be forced to do likewise.

I do not want to scold. All I am asking for is a return of that spirit that prompted the poet to say

"In faith and hope the world will disagree,
But all mankind's concern is charity."

The people on relief in the state of Pennsylvania are standing in the hall of Pontius Pilate, their brows crowned with the thorns of worry, their bodies shackled by the manacles of disorganization, and they are pleading with God, they are supplicating the members of the General Assembly to lift from their backs the heavy burden of life and to erase from their minds the worry of poverty.

I have no plan to offer. As a matter of fact, I have already confessed my inexperience, but I do have an abiding faith in human nature and I know that out of the leadership of a Witkin, out of the great heart and the true-blue friendship of a Turner, out of the masters of detail of a Blumberg, out of the great sense of responsibility of a Sowers, will evolve a worth-while plan, if they will but reveal a genuine disposition to cooperate and to get the Republican controlled Senate to do likewise. If they do that, I feel they will be doing more to restore their party to popularity than any other action they could possibly take, and at the same time they will receive the thanks of the people on relief, so that they dare lift their eyes to God and their hearts to better things that are sure to come. The glorious sunlight of yesterday shall return if this problem is handled by the application of common sense.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. The Chair has been informed that a number of the members are not playing fair with either the Chair or the Sergeant-at-Arms. Under the orders of the House itself, the space back of the rail is to be kept clear for the members, and yet a number of the members, the Chair is informed, bring in friends under the guise of taking them into the consultation room which is a deception that is not worthy any member of this House. The House itself has given orders to keep that space clear. The Chair hopes that in future this practice will be discontinued. It is not fair to the members, it is not fair to the Chair and it is not fair to the Sergeant-at-Arms. The Chair and the Sergeant-at-Arms are only the servants of the House and they are trying to carry out the orders of the House. The Sergeant-at-Arms will see that the rule is enforced.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SPROUL. Mr Speaker and members of the House, there has been much comment regarding this bill and a bit of humor has passed between myself and other members so that a word of explanation possibly is in order.

In our county a continual annoyance by mosquitos has caused a survey to be made by certain residents of some of the neighborhoods affected, in order to consider the practicability of getting rid of this pest. Not only is the personal comfort of our present population involved but a favorable reflection in real estate valuables is thought will be the result.

Ten boroughs and three townships in Delaware County have already spent about twelve hundred dollars in a preliminary survey with the services of a State College etymologist. The results of their work, embodied in a report I have available, are convincing and practically enough for these citizens to get further pledges to continue their efforts.

This will enable the voters of any county to set up a commission serving without pay to take charge of the detail under the supervision of the county commissioners who make the appointment of the commission.

The United States government has proved mosquito extermination to be possible. We in Delaware County would like to set up the necessary enabling acts for any county to get rid of this pest if the voters so express themselves, and I ask your support of this bill.

I shall be glad to refer any technical questions to Doctor Surface, who is acquainted with this subject, and I will ask the members to give this bill their support, enabling the citizens of any county to undertake this work if the citizens so express themselves to that effect.

Mr. SUMNEY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Sproul.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SPROUL. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SUMNEY. Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman's answer to my question is in the affirmative I will pledge him my support and guarantee him that any man who votes against this bill is not a friend of mine.

Will this method exterminate mosquitos where it is being used?

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. Speaker, I will answer that question as I answered it in my preliminary remarks by saying that the people in Delaware County working for one year the results so far have been successful enough to continue their efforts, pledging the necessary money out of their own pockets, and the United States government has proved the practicability of the elimination of mosquitos whenever they go into a new territory.

Mr. SUMNEY. Mr. Speaker, I heartily support this bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE

Mr. McCREARY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 1250, Printer's No. 520, on page 8 of today's calendar, bills on final passage postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. McCREARY,

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1250, entitled:

An Act to provide revenue for State and county purposes and in cities coextensive with counties for city and county purposes imposing taxes upon certain classes of personal property providing for the assessment and collection of the same providing for the duties and compensation of prothonotaries and recorders in connection therewith conferring powers and imposing duties on certain county and city officers and on the State Department of Revenue and fixing penalties

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. McCREARY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I ask permission to take this microphone for two reasons: One is to save time and confusion and the other is because I wish every member of this House to understand what I say in regard to House Bill No. 1250, because it concerns every member of this House and also every man, woman and child in this great state.

It is House Bill No. 1250, and for your information, let me ask you to turn to page nine, section seven and at page twenty-five, section thirty; these are the two important features of this bill that I wish to call to your attention.

Let me state again that this is not a new bill, it is an old one,—it is older than any man in this House. This particular bill was passed in 1844. This book that I have is yellow with age. The personal property clause is found on page nine, clause nine, section seven, and since that time this bill has been amended nine times, once in 1866, once in 1879, 1881, 1889, 1891, 1913, 1927, 1933, and now it is up for amendment the tenth time.

It is old because it is a tax bill, and it was passed ninety-one years ago when real estate was really the only source of wealth in this state, and since then, as you all know, a marvellous change has taken place, and this bill instead of being a tax on intangible property as it should have been during the past twenty-five years, taking the load off of real estate, but because this bill was not enforced the tax remained on real estate and it has been nearly taxed out of existence.

Now, gentlemen, there is no politics about this, there is no personality about it, there is no nationality about it nor sectionalism. It covers the whole range of every person in this state. It is state-wide, and every man, woman, and child directly or indirectly pays taxes. The thing we need is an equalization of taxes, and that is all this Bill No. 1250 does. It equalizes the taxation, takes the burden off of real estate and puts an equal part or a part of it at least on the tangible property, which you all understand is stocks, bonds, and other forms of wealth. For your information let me give you just a very few figures. Figures are hard to remember, but can remember the few that I am trying to hand you. They are these: The total estimate on real estate values in this state is twelve billion dollars, and on that twelve billion dollars in this state there is assessed and taxes paid on ten billion dollars; likewise the assessed value of intangibles in this state is also ten billion dollars, and yet that assessed valuation and the tax collected on it is only two billion seven hundred fifty million dollars, leaving a balance of eight billion two hundred fifty million dollars of intangible values in this state that so far has gone exempt or has not been paying the four mill tax. In addition to that all of the real estate is assessed at a figure of thirty mills on the valuation, while all of the intangibles have never paid their tax before now.

The Governor's Bill, No. 925, makes the tenth amendment to this 1844 bill in raising the four mill tax to six mills, and instead of leaving it in the counties he has turned the collection of it over to the Department of Revenue and proposes to have the Department of Revenue collect six mills instead of four. Likewise he proposes to return three mills to the county and the state keep three, but out of the counties' share comes the cost of collection of the Department of Revenue which is estimated at one million five hundred thousand dollars, leaving the counties who now get four mills only three mills and taking a million and a half dollars out of that for the cost of collection.

You see, members of the House, here is where House Bill 1250, which is really a companion bill to Bill No. 925, introduced by the administration, provides a different method of collection, which will not cost the county or the state either one of them one penny, because in this bill it is intended to use the Indiana method of collecting this kind of intangible tax, it simply means to put stamps on all intangibles, and the owner of the security has to buy those stamps from the county treasurer and put those on his own securities, and therefore he is his own assessor and collector, and it doesn't cost the county one cent.

If you turn to section 30 on page 25 you will find what will happen to the owner of the security if he does not obey this law. His security turns to ashes in his hands, because he can neither collect them, sell them, or mail them until these such stamps are included. Now, members of the House the Administration bills now provide for stamp collection on tobacco, it also provides for stamp collection on documents. Now, all I am asking it to also provide for stamp collection on intangibles which means morgtages, bonds, notes, and everything of that kind.

Now, members of the House, there is no competition, there is no opposition between this Bill No. 1250 and the Administration's Bill No. 925. The only difference is in the method of collection. That one costs the county a million and a half dollars estimated, paid over to the Revenue Department, while Bill No. 1250 puts the assessment and collection of that intangible tax in the hands of the security owners themselves.

Now, it only takes, as the gentleman over here said this morning, commonsense to decide which of these is the more economical, which of these will leave the most money in the county and in the state. Again I am just offering you as few figures as possible, because I know how hard it is to retain them. Here is the result; if you pass Bill No. 1250 the estimated savings to the state are these, it will save the cost of collection by the Revenue Department of a million and a half dollars. It will save to the state that half cent that we pay to the county on every gallon of gasoline estimated at ten million dollars. The state retains that instead of handing it over to the county. It will save, estimated, one half of the money that the State now appropriates for public education, because when these counties get the full amount of the four mill tax they will not need that state appropriation by one half. That is estimated that again the counties will return to the state two millions out of six millions and retain the four, which they now have according to the law, and the total of these figures is this, that at the end of the biennium the state will have had fifty-four million, five hundred thousand dollars instead of forty-nine million dollars that they estimate they are going to receive by the passage of Bill No. 925.

So whichever way you look at it, members of this House, this bill No. 1250 allows the counties to retain the four mill tax which they have had for the last 22 years, but which through the neglect of the county commissioners they have failed to collect, but this measure will put the assessment and the collection of their six mill tax up to the owner of the security. Now, I ask you to vote yes on this bill, not out of consideration to me,—that is an unimportant matter but because I tell you frankly, and I firmly believe it, that this is a good bill for every man, woman and child in this State, and in the eloquent words of our friend Thaddeous Stevens, is in the interest of the poor people, the poorest inhabitant and the meanest hut in the mountains.

Members of this House, here is an opportunity to have your home-rule in your own county and I believe that every member in this House in the campaign last summer upheld the idea of home-rule. Then why do we hand the collection of millions of dollars over to the Revenue Department when the people in our own county can do that collecting and assessing themselves, and retain four mills instead of three with the cost of collection taken out. Vote yes on this bill if you believe in home-rule.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. FURMAN. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Ways and Means for further consideration.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. MOUL. I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the sponsor of this bill, the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Eberharter, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. EBERHARTER. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. MOUL. Mr. Speaker, what will be the status of the justices of the peace of Pennsylvania if this bill becomes law? What will be his status?

Mr. EBERHARTER. Mr. Speaker, this bill will not in any way restrict or limit the right of any justice of the peace as it exists at the present time before the passage of this bill. He will have every right that he has at the present time.

Mr. MOUL. Mr. Speaker, do the justices of the peace at the present time give any legal advice?

Mr. EBERHARTER. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman I really do not know whether or not the justices make a practice of giving legal advice as such.

Mr. MOUL. Mr. Speaker, does the justice of the peace at the present time have the right to pass judgment?

Mr. EBERHARTER. Mr. Speaker, justices of the peace at the present time have the right to pass judgment on matters brought before them in a legal way.

Mr. MOUL. Mr. Speaker, in passing judgment does the justice of the peace not actually give legal advice?

Mr. EBERHARTER. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman I would say that he does not give legal advice when he is passing judgment on a case or a matter that is brought before him in a legal way.

Mr. MOUL. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman think that a justice of the peace should be permitted to give legal advice,—do you think he is competent to give legal advice?

Mr. EBERHARTER. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman from York, Mr. Moul, I would say that the giving of legal advice requires a good bit of education and specialization along that line and as a general thing I would say that a justice of the peace is not competent to give legal advice generally because he is not specially trained.

Mr. MOUL. Then, Mr. Speaker, the gentleman says that he is not competent to give legal advice, but he says that not being competent to give legal advice he should be permitted to pass judgment?

Mr. EBERHARTER. Mr. Speaker, he is permitted to pass judgment by virtue of being a justice of the peace, by virtue of the fact that both sides of the question are submitted to him. and that is one of the duties that is given to him by virtue of his election to his office. Of course the justice of the peace when he renders judgment is subject to appeal to a court of law.

Mr. MOUL. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman, do you think that he should be permitted to pass judgment if he is not competent to give legal advice?

Mr. EBERHARTER. Mr. Speaker, I believe that a justice of the peace should be permitted, as he is permitted at the present time, to pass judgment on any case that is brought before him in a legal way.

Mr. MOUL. Mr. Speaker, how would the gentleman justify that position? If he is not capable of giving legal advice in any case whatsoever, why should he be permitted to pass judgment?

Mr. EBERHARTER. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman from York, Mr. Moul, I would say that when a case is brought before a justice of the peace each side presents the evidence, the justice of the peace decides, first, on the question of fact brought before him. Then, if a question of law arises he passes judgment on that which is subject to appeal to a court.

Mr. MOUL. Mr. Speaker, when a case is brought before the justice of the peace, — for example, take a case brought by a state policeman, — I believe that the law at present where a man is arrested for a violation of the law, that is the Motor Code, he must be taken to the nearest justice of the peace under the law at the present time. Under this bill would it require legal advice on both sides in order to hear that case before sentence can be passed by the justice?

Mr. EBERHARTER. Mr. Speaker, absolutely it would not require legal advice.

Mr. MOUL. Mr. Speaker, then how could the justice make a decision, for a moment ago the gentleman told me that he would have to depend upon the arguments presented on both sides. If there is no counsel present on either side, then how can he render judgment if he is not capable of passing judgment without advice?

Mr. EBERHARTER. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman I would say that I did not say that the justice of the peace is not capable of passing judgment. There is no question in the mind, I should think, of any member of this House, that a justice of the peace or an alderman has the right to pass judgment on any case before him, and I don't think that I made the statement that a justice of the peace is not capable of doing so or that he has not the right to do it. Under this bill he has absolutely the same right he always has had.

Mr. MOUL. Mr. Speaker, the amendments offered to the bill call for a real estate man to have the privilege to draw up deeds, mortgages, contracts, and so forth. In other words a real estate man under the provisions of the bill now is permitted to prepare papers the same as the lawyers; is that correct, in so far as real estate is concerned?

Mr. EBERHARTER. Mr. Speaker, in so far as real estate is concerned I would answer the gentleman by saying that his statement is substantially correct.

Mr. MOUL. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman please tell the House what is required in order to get a real estate broker's license?

Mr. EBERHARTER. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman, if I may, I am not familiar with the provisions of the licensing act pertaining to real estate brokers, so that I do not think I could qualify as an expert on real estate brokers law.

Mr. MOUL. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, being a real estate broker myself, I do know the requirements which are necessary to obtain a real estate broker's license, and when I get up to oppose this bill I am doing so in order to be consistent. The provisions of this bill as it is now written, with the amendments would be a wonderful blessing to me as a real estate man because it now places me in a position as one who can go out and secure the deed writing and the mortgage writing and the contract writing and so forth that has been practiced in our territory for a long time by justices of the peace, and when I get up to oppose this bill today I want you to understand that I am doing it in order to be consistent, because this would certainly be a real benefit to me as a broker.

The gentleman did not answer the question as to what is required to be done to become a broker. All you need to do in Pennsylvania today is to fill out a blank and send it to Harrisburg, pay ten dollars and you are a real estate broker. It doesn't require that you know anything about the law. You can simply pay your ten dollars and be a broker. It is a poor bill to carry out the idea that the lawyers had in mind for the simple reason that you are going to make the justices of the peace and everybody else who wants to write out real estate papers become a real estate broker and you are not going to better the legal status at all.

I hope the members of this House will vote "no" on this bill.

Mr. MALE. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Eberharter?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Eberharter, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. EBERHARTER. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. MALE. Mr. Eberharter, will answer me by yes or no. Will a justice of the peace be permitted to write mortgages or wills as the bill is written up?

Mr. EBERHARTER. Mr. Speaker, I would say that any person can write a deed or a will under certain circumstances. The question is not one that can be properly answered yes or no.

Mr. MALE. I have a lot of letters here protesting against this bill, saying it will hurt business, and I am a real estate broker who paid eleven dollars and seventy-five cents to do business. I feel I can go out and take the business away from a lawyer according to your bill and a squire cannot. Is that right?

Mr. EBERHARTER. Mr. Speaker, I did not understand the entire question. I didn't know that the gentleman was interrogating me. If he will repeat his question, I will try to answer it.

Mr. MALE. Mr. Speaker, I am a real estate broker, paid eleven dollars seventy-five cents for my license. According to your bill I can write deeds and wills, can I not?

Mr. EBERHARTER. Mr. Speaker, that is not absolutely correct. Under certain circumstances you can write wills and under certain circumstances as a real estate broker you can write deeds and mortgages.

Mr. MALE. Mr. Speaker, a justice of the peace cannot write a deed or a will according to your bill.

Mr. EBERHARTER. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman I would say that under certain circumstances a justice of the peace can write a will or a deed.

Mr. MALE. Mr. Speaker, may I ask under what certain circumstances?

Mr. EBERHARTER. Mr. Speaker, the amendment on page six says that under certain circumstances any person can write a will. If you will just read that amendment on page six.

Mr. MALE. Mr. Speaker, didn't I hear the gentleman say just now—

The SPEAKER. Has the gentleman from Northampton the latest print of the bill? What printer's number does the gentleman have? The gentleman is informed that he is reading from the pink bill. The bill has been amended. The gentleman will find a copy of the bill on his file under Printer's No. 618.

Mr. MALE. Mr. Speaker, under the new bill will you have the squire write a will or a mortgage or a deed?

Mr. EBERHARTER. Mr. Speaker, I believe I answered that question twice before.

Mr. MALE. Mr. Speaker, but the gentleman did not answer it by yes or no.

Mr. EBERHARTER. Mr. Speaker, the question is one that cannot be answered by yes or no.

Mr. MALE. Ladies and gentlemen of the House, I think this is a very bad bill. In the first place my Republican friends when they voted on the bill, Mr. Witkin and Mr. Blumberg changed their votes for the purpose of reconsidering the vote. In our town we have not got a lawyer to go to. When we have deeds to draw we go to our own squire for that writing. They have it all fixed up for two dollars and if we go to a lawyer he charges us five dollars. According to this bill now the price would be ten dollars. I would advise all of you to vote "No" on this bill.

Mr. EBERHARTER. Mr. Speaker, I had not intended to take up any more of the time of this House in respect to this bill, but I think I might be able to clarify the matter in the minds of some of the members of the House by stating that in my opinion this bill is nothing more or less than a codification of the existing law today pertaining to the practice of law.

The only thing that this bill does, in my opinion, and as was stated by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, when the bill was up for debate the other day, was to attach a penalty for the individual that violates the law in this regard, and as has been laid down by the United States Supreme Court. I would like to say to the members of the House that this bill does not have what may be called selfish interests. It has long been recognized that the public need protection from those who practice law without the proper qualifications. And in that connection, members of the House, in 1934 the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania said in a decision which has been followed ever since, and a decision which took into account the decisions of other states and the laws of other states. It says: "The strict regulation and control of persons who render legal services is as necessary and essential to the welfare of the public at large as the requirements for the practice of medicine or dentistry."

Now, in that connection, members of the House, you can see that when any person has an important document to draw, that he needs the protection, he needs the advice of somebody who is competent to render the right kind of legal advice. I submit to you that in the drawing of important legal documents it is more necessary to have the services of a competent attorney than it is in the trial of a case. In the trial of a case, members of the House, the trial of the case is open to the public, you have an impartial judge sitting up there to see that justice is done. Whenever important papers are to be drawn the parties in interest are there by themselves, and they are taking the advice of a person who is not competent to give them the advice and I say, therefore, that the drawing of an important legal document requires special training which the ordinary person does not have.

In that connection I would like to read from the decision of a New York Appellate Court. It states, "The practice of law, as that term is now commonly used, embraces much more than the conduct of litigation. The greater and more responsbile and delicate part of a lawyer's work is in other directions, drafting instruments, creating trusts, formulating contracts, and so forth require legal knowledge of the highest order."

Now, members of the House, the state courts of Ohio, Massachusetts, New York, and practically all the states of the Union have laws relating to the practice of law. This is not a measure that can be classed as a selfish measure. This is a measure drawn to protect public interest. Members of the House, we voted just recently on bills that had the same idea in mind. We voted on the optometrists bill. I call your attention, members of the House, to the fact that as a matter of public protection doctors, dentists, nurses, undertakers, osteopaths, pharmacists, architects, engineers, barbers, accountants and beauticians all have laws regulating their practice.

Under this law real estate brokers also have protective measures in the interest of the general good. If this law is passed it will be in the interest of the public and I ask you, members of the House, in voting on this measure to give it the same consideration that you did to these other measures when you enacted them into law.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am not a lawyer, but I am a justice of the peace, so I arise to oppose this bill. There is under this act on page 2, line 23, and on page three up to line nineteen it states very clearly that no person shall practice law in a legal way with certain exceptions. It will eliminate, to my way of thinking, the powers entirely of the justice of the peace, and thereby abolish that office, and I hope the members of this House will consider that fact and vote "no" on this measure.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in the listening to the discussion of this bill it seems to me that they are misinterpreting this bill. Last Monday this bill was defeated for the reason that objection was raised by real estate men. This bill has now been amended to protect the rights of real estate men to conduct real estate business. He has no right, as my friend, Mr. Moul, of York says, to prepare contracts. I am a real estate man, and I will frankly admit that it is a matter for a lawyer to prepare legal contracts. That has been removed from this bill. Another amendment was made to the bill on page 5, where the bill read "directly and indirectly to any person partnership, association or corporations, either for or without compensation."

You will find there that "either for or without" has since been removed from this bill. That allows any layman to offer or give advice as long as he is not a lawyer or holds himself out to be compensated as a lawyer. This bill is a duplication of the Supreme Court decision in the Smeltzer case. It only puts in one thing the penalty for violation. No man, for instance, may put a shingle in his window when he is a real estate man or the words "Attorney at Law" or to pose as an attorney at law when he is not a man learned in the law.

The objection was raised that a man dying in the hospital cannot get his attorney. The bill was amended and that objection has been removed from this bill, and I see no reason why anyone should say that a squire is able to prepare a will or a deed or a mortgage. As my good friend, from Northampton said, it only costs $11.75 for a man to get a license as a real estate broker, and he can file that application as he said, and send it to Harrisburg, for 11.75 and have a real estate broker's license in his office and that will make him able to write a deed, a bond or a mortgage and all other necessary papers connected with his real estate duties.

Only two weeks ago this House passed a bill requiring an educational test to become a real estate man, and I hope that if this becomes a law we will have to have certain qualifications for a man to become a real estate man. I voted in the negative the last time this bill was before the House. Now as the bill is before you I am going to vote "aye" and I ask you to vote aye on this bill.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Schwartz.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Schwartz permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SCHWARTZ. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Philadelphia say then if any man shall procure a license to the amount of $11.75 that they shall be qualified to be a real estate man in the law.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. No, I said to get a real estate broker's license.

Mr. HALUSKA. To get a real estate broker's license?

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, under the present act they just fill an application out. He must be a man, an American citizen and so forth and so on, of good character and he can obtain real estate broker's license.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. Speaker, would the gentleman say then that if a man be an American citizen and have $11.75 that he would have more knowledge of the law than a justice of the peace who has practiced for twenty or twenty-five years.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I do not understand the gentleman's question.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman stated awhile ago that one of the qualifications that he must have, are that he is an American citizen.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I said, and maybe I should repeat the answer for you, all that is necessary for a man to become a real estate broker is to receive an application and fill the application out and one of the requirements on that application is that he must be an American citizen, of good reputation.

Mr. HALUSKA. Are there any further questions that he must fill in that application?

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, not that I can remember there might be some suggestions as to character.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. Speaker, again I shall ask the gentleman the same question; by filling out that same application, why should he know more about the practice of law than a man who has been a justice of the peace who has practiced law for twenty years.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, a justice of the peace can apply for a real estate license and so can a lawyer. We have put in a bill today that a lawyer who wants to practice as a real estate man must get a license the same as a real estate broker. For your information the Chairman of the law and Order Committee has already made an application.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is talking about law and order and I am asking him a question. I would like to have the gentleman state the qualifications one must have to procure that license.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I have stated that before.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman has not answered my question.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I am terribly sorry. I have answered that question three times and if the gentleman does not understand the answer I would suggest that he go to the Secretary of the Commonwealth and get an application himself, and the questions are plain enough there, the same as I have explained them.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman does not know what qualifications you must have to procure that license. If he had ten dollars seventy-five cents————

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. CAPUTO. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Beaver, Mr. Caputo will state his point of order.

Mr. CAPUTO. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is not speaking on the bill before the House.

The SPEAKER. The point is not well taken.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. Speaker, I desire to know what qualifications you must have before you can procure the license. If anybody in this House can answer that question, I should like to have it answered.

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am going to be very brief. In listening to the discussion of this bill, as to how it affects real estate men, squires, and so forth, I believe the bill is drawn in order that no one whether he is a squire or whether he is a real estate man or whether he is a common ordinary layman can go out and advertise himself as being an attorney. That is the simple language in this bill and I believe that it is a good bill so far as labor is concerned because the laboring man when he goes for information pertaining to law, he is going to get it from an attorney and not from his friends. If anyone comes to me as a layman and asks me for information concerning any law, this bill does not prevent me from giving him that information, but it does prevent me from charging a fee or holding myself out as an attorney. I say in the interests of the workingman, in the interests of the public and in the interest of everyone, this is a good bill, and I ask the members to vote "aye" on it.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. HORST. Mr. Speaker, do I understand this bill is still on second reading?

The SPEAKER. The bill is on third reading.

Mr. HORST. Mr. Speaker, it has not passed third reading; that is what I mean?

Mr. Speaker. It has not passed third reading.

Mr. HORST. Mr. Speaker, I object to calling this bill out of order.

Mr. Speaker, since this bill was passed on second reading and amended last Thursday there has been so much of interest in the amendments that were adopted at that time that I feel that this body should send this bill back to the committee, in order that the objections that have been raised to certain features may be reconsidered.

I will say this, that I am in favor of a milk control bill and a milk control board, and my proposition is not to kill this bill by any means, because as I said, I am in favor of a milk control board, but because certain of the amendments that were put in here are so far reaching in their effects, and since the bill as it was amended last Thursday has brought about the action of the farmers' groups in this state, I feel that we owe it to them to give them consideration.

I might say this for the benefit of the members of the House, that since last Thursday the Legislative committee of the Pennsylvania Council of Farm organizations, which is comparable to the Pennsylvania Federation of Labor, has made a study of this bill and they have raised opposition and are opposed to the far reaching effects of certain amendments to this bill. I might also say for the benefit of the House since this bill was amended as I stated last Thursday there has been a meeting of the legislative committee of the Council of Cooperative organizations of Pennsylvania, of which there are one hundred forty-six member organizations, and they likewise have raised objections to certain amendments which appear in this bill.

Now, for that reason, because of the fact that these amendments came up and were acted upon last Thursday and then we adjourned until last night, and because of the fact that farm organizations cannot move as fast as possibly as some business organizations can, because of their wide representation, they feel that we are justified in delaying this matter for a day or two until we can hear and give these people an opportunity for expression.

If the bill had not been changed as it was first reported in this House, that objection might not have been so great, but it has been changed, materially changed, and for that reason, Mr. Speaker.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. HORST. Mr. Speaker I move that this bill No. 1721. Printer's No. 606, be re-committed to the Committee on Agriculture for the purpose of further study and amendment.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. WESTRICK. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, as Chairman of the Committee on Agriculture I would like to lay before this body the action that has already been taken by the Committee on Agriculture. On the second day of April in the Educational Forum, a public hearing was granted. These people of whom Representative Horst now speaks failed to appear and present all their objections at that time. Last Thursday, after adjourning or shortly before adjourning oral arrangements were made whereby the Committee on Agriculture would meet yesterday afternoon at half past three for the purpose of hearing any further amendments that might be offered or that might be suggested.

At that meeting several propositions were taken up before the whole Committee on Agriculture with the idea that if these amendments were necessary they might be added before this bill came up for third reading.

Different propositions were talked over and it was unanimously agreed by those present that the bill come before the House as it now is. It seems to me, gentlemen of the House, that this is another proposition of stalling off. We must realize that the old milk control board expires the last day of this month. Our sub-committee on agriculture met last week until midnight several nights in order that this thing might be whipped into shape so that we would not be without a milk control bill.

If these representatives of the cooperatives were so sure that the bill was not proper and right, why did they not appear yesterday at least and present their objections to the Committee on Agriculture?

As chairman of that committee I have not been approached by a single one of those fellows outside of the members of this House until this morning, showing plainly that these men are not playing fair with this committee. I ask you if you think the committee which is to act should be considered at least in a small measure should those proposals not be brought before the Committee.

I ask that this motion be voted down and that this bill be placed on the calendar in its order of business, and that we act on it today, not next week or some other time.

Mr. JOHN A. SMITH. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, an observation from the gallery last night; the House of Representatives reminded a certain person very much of a Rembrandt painting, because of the great profusion of windmills, is well taken in my remarks today and I will confine them to two pertinent points in this discussion.

I believe that this bill has had ample hearing. As told to you by the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Westrick, on the second of April public hearings were held from two thirty to six thirty. At that time a great number of people testified as to their position on this bill. You have on your desk a compendium of those remarks which goes to show that the people who are objecting now to the passage of this bill and wish to have it postponed for further hearing and further consideration, as suggested by the letter placed upon your desk, or in your postoffice box last night, were the people who did not appear at that time and place themselves on record as opposed to any of the provisions of this bill.

It is true that there have been amendments offered to this bill, forty in all. Sixty-two were suggested. These sixty-two were considered from every angle by the subcommittee of the House and the Senate. Thirty-eight of those sixty-two were adopted and two more were while it was in the sub-committee of the House and the Senate. We sat down night after night in that sub-committee and tried to improve this bill. Every suggestion that is offered in the letter placed on your desk last night came up for full consideration at that non-partisan meeting of the sub-committee of the Senate and the House.

I have just one observation to give to you, and that is when you hear the testimony of those people who came, as you will see from this compendium from every corner of the State,—some of them from Warren, Erie, Butler, Washington County—came to me and said after the meeting "Mr. Smith, we have come a long ways to present our complaints to the board. This is an open hearing and the people who have not come here to be heard should not chisel when we go back home. We expect you to keep faith with us and not hear testimony that they would not give in the face of the facts that were presented here today."

Gentlemen of the House, we cannot break faith with those people who came here at their own expense to give us their own testimony and sell them out to their enemies.

We have at the end of this story reference made to the economic laws of supply and demand. This plan to postpone is a plan whereby this economic law of supply and demand can be dragged before us again. I warn you I serve notice of the fact that long before we had such a thing as economic laws of supply and demand we had a law thousands of years ago handed down from Sinai: "Thou shalt not steal." It is for the purpose of carrying through to the full affect that law of Sinai that this bill go through as it has been presented to us by the sub-committee of the House and Senate. I ask you to vote for this bill.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

REASONS FOR VOTE

Mr. BRENNAN. Mr. Speaker, I am voting "no" and wish to file the following reasons:

I am voting "no" on House Bill No. 1721 for the reason that there has been a request made for the bill to be recommitted for amendment.

REASONS FOR VOTE

Mr. HORST. Mr. Speaker, I desire to be recorded as voting "aye" and wish to file my reasons:

I voted "aye" on House Bill No. 1721. I favor a milk control law providing for a milk control board with ample powers to perform the functions necessary. I am not in sympathy with the very wide powers the bill gives to the board in its control over farmers' milk organizations set up by farmers to conduct their business. Such organizations should be subject to the regulations of the board as to price of product sold and any other actions of such organizations contrary to price regulation should be under the control of the board. But the board should not meddle with into the management of such organizations as section 18 now makes possible.

REASONS FOR VOTE

Mr. MERRELL. Mr. Speaker, I am voting "no" and desire to file the following reasons:

In voting against House Bill No. 1721, I do so because Co-operatives are not exempt from its provisions. This bill in its present form could destroy in a short time the many benefits which members of Co-operatives have worked for many years to build up.

REASONS FOR VOTE

Mr. FRANK E. SNYDER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to be recorded as voting "no" and filed my reasons therefor:

In voting against House Bill No. 1721, I do so because Co-operatives are not exempt from its provisions. This bill in its present form could destroy in a short time the many benefits which members of Co-operatives have worker for many years to build up.

REASONS FOR VOTE

Mr. STEWART. Mr. Speaker, I am voting "no" and wish to file my reasons:

When section nineteen was taken from the bill, thought it was all right, but upon further examination Section 18 line 7 to 16 were embodied in the bill to include the part in Section 19, that was objectionable to the milk dealers of my county who have asked me to oppose this part in the bill. Hence I vote "no."

REASONS FOR VOTE

Mr. WOOD. Mr. Speaker, I desire to be recorded as voting "aye" and wish to file the following reasons:

I vote "aye" on House Bill No. 1721, as we must have some control of the milk business, during this emergency, but I am of the opinion that it gives too much power to the control board over the Co-operative Agricultural Associations in regulating their own business. These Co-operatives are the only means available to farmers to secure equality in bargaining. They should be fostered rather than destroyed.

TIME EXTENDED ON BILL

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I move that the time on House Bill No. 811, Printer's No. 447, entitled:

An Act to amend section one thousand two hundred and one of the act approved the twenty-third day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws nine hundred thirty-two) entitled "An act relating to cities of the third class and amending revising and consolidating the law relating thereto" prohibiting mayors from holding other public offices on page 8 of today's calendar, bills on final passage postponed, be extended five days.

The motion was agreed to.

SENATE

WEDNESDAY, April 17, 1935.

The Senate met at 11:00 o'clock A. M.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Thomas Kennedy) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. William E. Howard, D. D., offered the following prayer:

O Thou great Jehovah, Thou who didst lead Israel as a shepherd guideth his flock, we beseech Thee so to lead us.

Thou didst bring Thy chosen people out of their bondage in Egypt; Thou didst make them to walk in a dry path through the depths of the sea; by a pillar of cloud by day and fire by night Thou didst direct them for forty long years in their journey across a dreary wilderness. When they forgot Thee, going after false gods, Thou didst bring them to defeat. Finally Thou didst part the waters of a great river that they might enter into a land flowing with milk and honey.

Release us, O God, from our bondage to sin. Lead us across the desert which we call life. Keep us near Thee that we may not lose sight of the manifestations sent by Thee to mark out our way. Help us to shun the false gods which might lead us to defeat. At last bring us to that happy destination where the wicked cease from troubling and the weary shall find rest. Amen.

MOTION TO ADJOURN

Mr. CLARK. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now adjourn until next Monday morning at nine o'clock.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, last week the Governor asked the Senate to stay in session the entire week, and asked the House to stay in session the entire week. The Governor made the same request this week. I noted from the morning papers that the Republican Senators have finally agred on a tax plan, which I think is a most commendable step. Of course, I feel that it does not raise half enough revenue and it does not tax the right classes of property, nevertheless, it is a beginning, and, as I said, is a commendable beginning.

I am a beginner here, and do not presume to tell the Senate how to conduct the business; but I do feel that we waste a lot of time here in this Senate—meeting a couple of days a week, and I feel that if we should stay here this week at the request of the Governor, we would enter into conference. I see by the paper the Governor is ready for a conference with the Senators on tax measures, and I am sure that is the only way we would ever get anywhere. We all realize that in order to enact a tax bill it must have the support of a good many Republican Senators on this floor.

I feel it would be encouraging news back home if it should go out that the Republican Senators had proposed a tax plan at last, and that we had decided to stay here all week and settle down and do a whole week's work.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. McGINNIS and Mr. REER (Washington) and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—20

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| Aron, | Ealy, | Hunsicker, | Reed, |
| Batchelor, | Gelder, | Mallery, | (Dauphin) |
| Bean, | Graff, | McClure, | Staudenmeier, |
| Buckman, | Homsher, | Owlett, | Woodward, |
| Clark, | Howell, | Pierson, | Ziesenheim, |
| Coyne, | | | |

NAYS—24

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| Baumer, | Law, | Reed | Sones, |
| Cavalcante, | McCreesh, | (Washington) | Thompson |

| Harris, | Miller, | Roberts, | Thompson |
| Huffman, | Prince, | Rodgers, | (Westmoreland) |
| Kahle, | Pytko, | Rupp, | Trainer, |
| Lanius, | Rankin, | Shapiro, | |

So the question was determined in the negative.

RECESS

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess until 4:30 p. m.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDENT. The time of recess having elapsed the Senate will be in order.

I voted "no" because I am curious to know what business we have to transact, and that information must come from the gentlemen on the other side.

Mr. HOWELL. Mr. President, inasmuch as it is becoming a joke and not a serious proposition, I wish to change my vote from "aye" to "no".

The PRESIDENT. On the question of adjournment, the "ayes" are 19 and the "noes" 19. The Chair votes "aye".

The motion is carried, and the Senate stands adjourned until 12 o'clock noon tomorrow.

The SPEAKER (Wilson B. Sarig) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Reverend Warner Brown, pastor of Mt. Zion Baptist Church, Steelton, offered the following prayer.

Shall we bow our heads in silent prayer just a moment.

Almighty God, Heavenly Father, who revealest Thyself to man in the universe as Truth, in nature as Beauty and in Christ as Goodness, help us so to appreciate the truth, the beautiful and the good that we may be willing to become as humble children in our approach to thy goodness; to be sincere in our desire for righteousness, and be faithful in our acceptance of the way that thou hast taught.

Make us appreciative of the blessings already received, and expectant of the good things that thou hast prepared for us.

O God, we make our earnest prayer that thou wilt keep the United States in thy holy protection; that thou will incline the hearts of the citizens to create a spirit of subordination and obedience to government; and entertain brotherly affections and love for one another and for fellow-citizens of the United States at large.

We pray Thee, O God, of might, wisdom, and justice through Whom authority is rightly administered, laws, enacted, and judgments decreed, to assist with Thy holy spirit of counsel and fortitude the President of our country, Governors of our States, members of the legislature and congress, all judges, magistrates and their officers appointed to guard our political welfare, that they may be enabled to discharge the duties of their respective stations to the great honor and glory to Thy name.

O God, preserve this body in the union of spirit and in the peace which the world cannot give; and after enjoying the blessing of this life, be admitted to those which are eternal. Amen.

RESOLUTIONS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Mr. ALLEN. RESOLUTION No. 125.

In the House of Representatives, April 16, 1935.

Whereas, The Claar Telephone Company operating in the County of Bedford has put into effect a schedule or rates which confines the free zones of telephone subscribers within very limited areas, and

Whereas, A complaint against said schedule of rates has been pending before the Public Service Commission for several years and no final action thereon has been taken, therefore be it

Resolved, That the Public Service Commission of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania be requested to bring said rate complaint to a speedy determination so that subscribers to the telephone service of said Claar Telephone Company will receive relief if the commission determines said complaint is well founded.

Referred to the Committee on Public Utilities.

By Mr. CARR. RESOLUTION No. 126.

In the House of Representatives, April 16, 1935.

Whereas, A study of the power and light business in the United States discloses the fact that the large power companies are charging exorbitant rates, and are making huge profits by watering their stocks out of all proportion to their true value; that they are distributing their profits among a large number of holding companies, with high salaried officials and interlocking directorates, and thereby evading the spirit of the law, and

Whereas, The President of the United States has publicly declared that these practices must be discontinued, and has taken an active part in disclosing to his people the methods under which these companies have been operating, and

Whereas, Our President has been instrumental in providing his people with a "yardstick" by which they may judge electricity and power, and

Whereas, The Utility Commissioners of the United States, meeting in convention in Washington, D. C. on November fifteenth, publicity declared that the rates charged by the Utilities are at least twenty-five per centum too high all over the United States, and

Whereas, The President, on November thirteenth, handed to the Public Service Commission of every state a "big stick" with which to reduce rates on electricity. This consists of a formula worked out by the New York Power Authority by which the cost of distributing electric power—for years the unknown quantity in the utility business—can be quickly and accurately determined. Private companies have consistently refused to reveal the cost of getting electricity into the homes, and have shrouded it with mystery, but the commission has now made it public, and

Whereas, The United Gas Improvement Company has watered its stock out of all proportion to its true value and has and continues to charge millions of consumers exorbitant rates for gas and electricity, therefore be it

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I wish to give warning to the Democratic members of the House that I once heard Will Rogers say that there was nothing that was so serious that there was not a funny side to it, and he particularly referred to the head lines in the newspapers.

Last night in the Harrisburg Telegraph you will notice that it states in big headlines "Republican Tax Bill Drafted." Right underneath it says "Hundreds Flee Before Dynamite Explodes." I just want to warn the Democratic members to be on their guard.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman under his question of personal privilege will be spread upon the Journal.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. WOOD. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

RESOLUTION

RESOLUTION NO. 37

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time Resolution No. 37, Printer's No. 663.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, January 28, 1935.

Whereas, Industrial recovery in Pennsylvania is dependent upon the industrial recovery of the nation; and

Whereas, it is the policy of the State Administration to cooperate with the National Administration in providing a job for the man who wants to work; be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concur), that this Legislature hereby pledges itself to render its full cooperation and support to the National Administration in expediting and making effective in Pennsylvania its program of public works, relief and recovery; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the Governor and to all heads of State administrative departments by the Secretary of the Commonwealth.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was adopted.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

UNEMPLOYMENT RELIEF FUNDS FOR HIGHWAYS

Mr. SHREINER offered a resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent to have it read.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 17, 1935.

Whereas, it is the firm belief of most Pennsylvanians that moneys expended for unemployment relief within this Commonwealth, from whatever source, should be to the greatest degree possible in the form of work relief; and

Whereas, it is equally generally held that such work relief should be, whenever possible, employed in the construction of permanent and lasting improvements beneficial to all citizens; and

Whereas, one of the most important and costliest of all financial burdens upon this Commonwealth and the political subdivisions thereof is the furnishing and maintenance of proper highway transportation facilities: and

Whereas, it is believed and hoped that a great portion of such work relief contributions from both Federal and State agencies will be expended in the dual capacity of relieving this burden and furnishing employment; and

Whereas, modern conditions render increasingly necessary not only additional highways but highways of proper width, construction and design; and

Whereas, the construction of narrow or temporary highways is dangerous and uneconomical in view of the present day tremendous vehicular demands upon such highways; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, that the authorities, both State and National, charged with distribution of work relief moneys be requested to insist that the portions of such moneys expended in the construction of highways in this Commonwealth which are portions of the primary system of highways be constructed so as to safely support and allow at least three lanes of traffic.

The SPEAKER. The resolution will be filed with the Clerk.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. Speaker, in these dire times being faced with the responsibility and being asked by our constituents to answer mail, and being criticised for our actions, I have a bit of philosophy in my hand which I wish to read and have it spread upon the Journal for the information of the House.

"If I were trying to read, much less answer all the attacks made on me, this shop might well be closed for any other business. I do the best I know how, the very best I can; and I mean to keep on doing it to the end. If the end brings me out all right, what is said against me will not amount to anything. If the end brings me out all wrong, ten angels swearing I was right would make no difference. —Abraham Lincoln"

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman under his question of personal privilege will be spread upon the Journal.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ANDREWS. I must, Mr. Speaker, in order to maintain my legislative selfrespect, say something about this bill.

This measure is an example of the careless craftmanship with which this session has been frequently confronted. It is an example of the practice of taking a particularly good objective and then with amateurish hands spreading the themes over the horizon, with the result that perfectly innocent people, if the bill passes and is enforced according to its language, necessarily suffer.

If you will turn to page two of the measure you will find that an employe is anyone who distributes materials for any purpose other than the personal work of himself and any member of the family. That is on lines seven to fourteen.

Then on lines seventeen to twenty, you will see that industrial homework means the processing in a home and so forth of anything "except articles which are being prepared solely for the consumption, wearing or use of persons resident in the home where the work is performed," and then if you turn to the next paragraph, lines twenty-three to twenty-nine you will find that in line twenty-eight they say, "where the work is performed or for the wearing of the person," but they very adroitly leave out the words "for consumption," making the bill at variance with the preceding paragraph.

Then if you will turn over to page three, lines seventeen to twenty, you will find that industrial homework is that which involves "the processing foodstuffs," and then you see the bracket. Somebody is protecting the employers in the home but they delete tobacco. Now, if that isn't weasel practice, if that isn't a weasel phrase, I don't like that sort of thing when I see it. A bill, which will make it improper to manufacture or process foodstuffs in the home and exempt tobacco is a measure conceived in bad faith.

Everybody knows that all of the people who live in the country, in the rural districts, and I wish it were possible to bring home to the representatives of the metropolitan areas that there is such a thing in the commonwealth of Pennsylvania as a rural area, have a social structure, an economical structure and an industrial structure, that differs radically from the structures we find in the metropolitan sections—everybody knows that in every rural town or any other town the size of Johnstown or of York and I assume of Reading, there are women who habitually, because they can make good pies and because they can make good cakes, manufacture and process foodstuffs in the home which they sell to the public. That sort of thing is sold in our country stores, it is sold at church affairs. It is a customary practice, and yet in order to keep women from being overworked in the home with industries and manufacturing, we go clear out of the way to protect the local baker and to protect the tobacco people and it was not necessary to do that to put this bill across. It is either bad faith or it is poor draftsmanship and it puts us in the position of wanting to support a bill where we want to go along with the purposes of the bill, but find the measure prostituted either because of evil intent or because of careless draftsmanship.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I wish to say something about the exclusion of the word "tobacco" in this bill, which has been referred to by the gentleman from Cambria. That was done by an amendment put into the bill when we had bedlam in here on Monday evening last and could not tell what was going on in connection with a motion by a Democratic member of this House. If we had not had the crowd back of the rail and the noise that was going on, some of us would have heard it and would have objected to it, but it got in and the objection has been raised on that ground. I am simply presenting here the fact of how it got in, in order that the gentleman from Cambria may be aware of that fact.

Mr. BARBER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes, is perhaps mistaken when he thinks that the deletion of "tobacco" was slipped in, and that the members of the House or those who might be interested in the bill will know how the word "tobacco" was excluded, it was stricken from the prohibited class because of the very reasons put forth by the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews.

We were desirous of taking into consideration some of the rural and local features, and rural and local industries that might be affected by this bill, and at the behest of one or several, rather, of those local communities, we investigated the matter of tobacco stripping as one of the phases and we decided that tobacco could well be eliminated from the prohibited class, because we found that in territories working conditions were suitable for home work of this kind and that regulation is all that would be necessary and needful at the present time.

I believe, as the sponsor of this bill, that it is only serving the purpose for which it was intended and that it is serving that purpose in a way that is perhaps the least harmful to any that might be affected.

We all must realize that in attempting to do good to a great number, a certain few will be harmed or at least that it will be disadvantageous to a certain few.

The members of the Committee on Labor, of which I am not a member, investigated all phases of this bill thoroughly, they took into consideration everything that was said to be wrong with it, every complaint that was brought before it. The members of the sub-committee went into this bill more thoroughly than any bill that has been gone into and has been presented upon the floor of this House, to my knowledge, and I believe and know that when that sub-committee recommitted it after the rigorous investigation that they sponsored and when the Committee on Labor at their hearings and having gone into the complaints on this measure reported the bill out on the floor of the House in the manner in which it is now, it was the sense of the majority of this House that this bill was a fitting bill and that it should pass. For that reason I am asking the members of this House to go on record as being in favor of this bill, as being in favor of the elimination of sweatshops and as being in favor of a bill that will do a maximum amount of good with a minimum amount of harm.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I submit to the membership of the House that in order to abolish sweatshops, it is not necessary to grant a special privilege to the tobacco strippers of Lancaster County. I also submit that in order to wipe out sweatshops it is not necessary to draw a bill calculated to kill what might be termed "kitchen industries." There is not a line of endeavor, industrial endeavor that could not properly ask the same consideration the gentleman would accord to the tobacco strippers, and I ask as an evidence of good faith upon the part of the membership of this House that this bill either be amended in line with correct draftsmanship, because it is not necessary, Mr. Speaker, if you draw a bill properly and you don't have any concealed and hidden motives and there is no special interest you desire to protect—it is not necessary to harm a few in order to benefit many.

I ask the members of this House, if the gentleman is not willing to have his bill sent back to committee for proper amendment, to vote it down.

Mr. BARBER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, first of all I might start by saying that I am entirely unwilling to have this bill sent back to committee.

I further wish to state that I do not agree with the gentleman's intrepretation of the act in regulating what he calls "kitchen industries."

Under the act, if the gentleman will turn to page two, line 17, he will find that "industrial homework means the processing in a home or any part of a home of any article or articles the material for which has been furnished by an employer," and the word "employer" is defined in line 7 on the same page to mean any person who distributes material either directly or indirectly through an employe, servant, agent, or independent contractor or any other third party to a home for the purpose of having such materials processed.

In the kitchen industry, to which the gentleman refers, namely, a woman making cakes or pies in her own home, she is not going to be furnished the material for that by any employer, she is not making it for any employer, and hence I believe does not come under that regulation and does not come under the classification of an industrial home worker. Therefore, I believe that since she is not an industrial home worker as defined in this act that the regulation of what might be called "kitchen industries" is not included here.

I realize, however, when it comes down to manufacturing, with the manufacturing of foodstuffs, your industrial home work that involves the processing of foodstuffs is prohibited. I realize that some of these kitchen industries might become manufacturers and if they do, if they come within the sphere of regulation to that extent, then I believe they should be treated in line with the idea of doing the greatest good to the greatest number and doing the least harm to the greatest number.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Barber.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Barber, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BARBER. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, under this bill the processing of foodstuffs in the home is prohibited?

Mr. BARBER. Mr. Speaker, the processing of foodstuffs in the home by an industrial home worker for industrial home work is prohibited.

Mr. ANDREWS. Where, Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman find the limitations that he expresses?

Mr. BARBER. Mr. Speaker, I do not find the limitations and I do not find the gentleman's inclusion.

Mr. ANDREWS. Exactly. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman does not find in the bill the sentiments he expresses. He only finds them in his mind. They ought to be in the bill.

Mr. BARBER. Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman needs any answer as to what I find in my mind and what he is unable to find in his, willingly or otherwise, consciously or otherwise, I can only again refer him to the definition of "industrial home work," and to the definition of "employer" as stated on page 2 of the bill.

Mr. FLINCHBAUGH. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentleman of this House, I want to set myself in the proper light as the man who make the motion that tobaccos be deleted from this bill. For fear someone will ask me what my occupation is, I want to say here and now that I am not interested either directly or indirectly in the tobacco business. I happen to live in a tobacco section and consequently I know considerable about the tobacco industry.

I think the members who have been here a number of years with me will agree that I am not accustomed to using underhanded methods in legislation; that I do not try to put things through stealthily in the dark of the night, but I believe that they will bear witness that whatever I do I do in the open and in the clear light of the day.

The people whom I represent are in the tobacco industry and as the gentleman from Cambria said, every locality has its peculiar lines of industry, and for that reason I was trying to protect the tobacco growers of the county of Lancaster, of the county of York, of the county of Clinton, and a few other sections.

The tobacco industry was originally a home industry. It started about one hundred fifty years ago in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and is one of the outstanding industries in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and it is peculiarly an industry of Pennsylvania.

On the tax measure proposing a tax on tobacco, I went along with the members of this House and voted for the tax measure, but when you come to further regulate the tobacco industry and needlessly regulated it I had to enter my protest. If you are familiar with Lancaster and have gone through the county of Lancaster that rich agricultural section of Pennsylvania the garden spot of the United States, you have seen the great green fields of tobacco. You have probably seen the prosperous condition of those farms, the great big red barns, the comfortable farm house and the sleek horses and fat cattle.

It is necessary to a certain extent to process this tobacco in the home. The processing of tobacco is more than an agricultural operation; it is partly a manufacturing operation because there is a fine technique connected with preparing tobacco for the market.

It naturally becomes necessary at times that this tobacco be taken into the home and there prepared for its final process, for the manufacture of a fine grade of cigars.

I started out to say a moment ago that the tobacco industry has primarily been a home industry, and even today you will find a man and his wife or a man and his neighbor having set aside a part of his home for the purpose of earning a livlihood for himself and his family through the manufacture of tobacco in a small way. For that reason I presented this amendment to this bill.

It was not done stealthily in the dark of the night, because I took this matter up with the Department of Labor and Industry and the Department of Labor and Industry no later than last week had special investigators in the tobacco growing sections, and they made a report. It was with their permission that the amendment was put in, they saying that they could not find any sweatshop conditions in this industry, and that the conditions under which the tobacco is processed in the home are cleanly and are not a detriment to the working people or the working interests of Pennsylvania.

If I had been selfish, I would have asked for an amendment deleting the word "foodstuffs," but foodstuffs are quite a different thing to prepare in the home. The matter of sanitation comes in,—you cannot regulate that to the same degree, the sanitation conditions in the home, as you can in factories. But sanitation does not to the same degree enter into the processing of tobacco. I ask you, ladies and gentlemen of the House, to support this bill No. 340 in its present form.

Mr. BRENNAN. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Barber?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Barber, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BARBER. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. BRENNAN. Mr. Barber; in my community there are many poor people who have been keeping themselves off the relief roll, by going to an industrial plant and getting small articles in the rough and taking them home and finishing them. Now, if this bill becomes a law will those people be compelled to stop that work?

Mr. BARBER. No, Mr. Speaker. There is no restriction on any industrial home worker or upon industrial home work other than the restrictions contained in section three, in which we find the following:

"The following classes of industrial homework are hereby declared unlawful and are absolutely prohibited

Industrial homework that involves the processing of foodstuffs drugs poisons or articles for internal human consumption or articles intended for use in connection with the serving of foods.

Industrial homework that involves the processing of sanitary goods or of childrens clothes toys or other articles intended for the use of children.

Industrial homework that involves the processing of explosives fireworks and articles of like character.

Industrial homework specifically forbidden by national or state law or by any code agreement or license approved by the President of the United States acting under the authority of the National Industry Recovery Act or any other federal act.

Other homework is at their discretion. And again, Mr. Speaker, I wish to reassert to the House and to the members of this house that "industrial homework" as defined in this bill is not the definition given by the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews.

An industrial home worker is exactly what I said. An industrial home worker is one who is furnished goods by an employer, and no one else is included in industrial home work.

Mr. SUMNEY. Mr. Speaker, on page three, article (b) of section three, "Industrial home work that involves the processing of sanitary goods or of children's clothes, toys, or other articles intended for the use of children." I think that the old saying, "Consistency, thou art a jewel" will apply to this. We allow toys from Germany, we allow toys from Japan, we allow toys from all over the world and yet industrial home work that involves processing of sanitary goods, or of children's clothes, toys or other articles intended for the use of children, toys or otherwise is forbidden in this bill.

Mr. BARBER. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is correct. We do propose to restrict and prohibit the manufacture of toys in the home, because we believe that we are interested in Pennsylvania workers and in Pennsylvania industries, and we find that there is a minimum of toy making in the homes of Pennsylvania, that most of it is made in the factories, and we believe that the factory is where it belongs, and by restricting it in this way we will drive the rest of it into the factories.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Barber.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Barber, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BARBER. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, are there any exemptions or possible exemptions or possible interpretations under this bill whereby the blind may work in their homes.

Mr. BARBER. Mr. Speaker, the blind may work in their homes on anything that is not prohibited by this bill.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, that answers the question. The blind cannot work in their homes under this bill.

Mr. BARBER. Mr. Speaker, I believe that the gentleman's interpretation of this bill and the deductions that he would draw from it are decidedly unfair and I really do not believe they are in keeping with the gentleman's general attitude regarding labor. If they are in keeping with it, and if the sentiment expressed by the gentleman on the floor of this House relative to this bill and his real sentiments then I am glad to have it known.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1932, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the committee created by a resolution of the House of Representatives to investigate the cost of the transportation of anthracite coal

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. Speaker, I desire to have the sponsor of this bill explain its purposes.

Mr. KANE. Mr. Speaker, I will be very glad to do so. The purpose of this bill is to provide necessary funds, hire counsel if necessary, to pay for experts on railroad freight rates and Interstate Commerce procedure to carry out the intention of Resolution No. 103 passed unanimously by this body, which appointed a committee of thirteen members of which I am the Chairman to investigate freight rates and freight carrying charges on anthracite coal from points in Pennsylvania to points on the Atlantic Seaboard, to New York, New Jersey and New England and the rates to the maritime provinces of Canada.

The purpose of that investigation is to see what can be done to secure necessary adjustments of freight rates, and such other things as can be done to bring back life, which may help to restore to the anthracite industry of Pennsylvania markets which they are rapidly losing in those vicinities mentioned in the resolution due to the importation of cheap foreign coal, and due to the importation of fuel oil, due to one hundred and one other causes which are robbing Pennsylvania's anthracite producers of what has long been one of their richest markets. It is not the intention of the committee or myself as chairman, through whose requisition this money must be spent, to go on any junkets of any kind whatever.

The resolution is drawn to report to the present session of the General Assembly, with a view of making a prompt study and quick report with the very fervent aim of doing what we can to restore this important industry to its once healthy state before it is too late. Does that answer the gentleman's question?

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the sponsor of this bill a question as to its purpose. May I interrogate further the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Kane?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from McKean permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. KANE. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Kane, state whether or not if the same conditions exist in the bituminous coal field?

Mr. KANE. Mr. Speaker, I am not personally in any way financially interested in the coal industry, either in the anthracite or bituminous fields. I am sincerely interested in the coal industry of Pennsylvania, if that is what the gentleman means.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. Speaker, this House has acted upon a number of resolutions; we have acted upon some in Cambria County. It has taken the last six weeks and five members of this House have worked hard investigating relief conditions in Cambria County with no compensation whatsoever. They have asked for none; they have also passed upon resolutions in Allegheny County, Fayette and so forth. We have done it voluntarily without any appropriation. Referring to this bill they are asking for a ten thousand dollar appropriation and this House and this legislature is not in position at this time to appropriate ten thousand dollars for such an investigation, and I hope that the members of this House will consider that and vote "no" on the bill.

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the bill here provides an appropriation to make an investigation of the anthracite industry so far as freight rates and so forth are concerned, and is a very good bill. First we must take into consideration that anthracite is exclusively a Pennsylvania product, and in listening to the interrogation of the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Haluska, wherein he asks why this does not include, or why not include, bituminous coal, may I say for the information of this House that the United Mine Workers of America in the anthracite region for some time, for a good many years, have been trying to find out why anthracite coal, or the freight rates rather, on anthracite coal were much higher per ton than they are on bituminous coal.

Not only that, but it costs more to transport a ton coal of anthracite coal from the region to tidewater in open cars than it does a ton of cement in closed cars that ought to be protected, and I think this House and the state of Pennsylvania should know the reason why things of that kind occur. It would be of great interest and great benefit to the Anthracite industry in the state of Pennsylvania if by this investigation some things can be brought out by at least having freight rates reduced from the coal regions to tidewater, and help bring back that industry to where it really belongs. I ask the members of this House to vote for this bill.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Yourishin?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Yourishin, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Yourishin, state how much higher the rates are on anthracite coal than they are on bituminous?

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker, I cannot give the exact figures, but I do know it runs anywhere from one dollar to one dollar and twenty-five cents.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Yourishin, have knowledge of whether it costs more or less to ship from Virginia to eastern markets than it does from Cambria County to the east?

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker, I do not.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. Speaker, we have the same conditions back in the western part of the state as they have in the eastern part of the state, and I feel that this is class legislation. If we are going to investigate the rates of one region we should investigate the rates of the other. It is unfair to pass up the bituminous coal fields because they are at this time suffering for the want of lower freight rates in the same manner as they are in the eastern part of the state.

Mr. EBERHARTER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the purposes of this investigating committee are very commendable. This investigation is somewhat different from the investigations that are being held by the various committees in different counties. This investigaton, if it is to accomplish any good whatsoever, will require the services of rate experts, and will most likely require the services of counsel. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I believe that this administration and that the members of this House, the Legislature here should go on record as favoring this appropriation and this investigation, because it will help labor, it will help capital and will seek to correct a condition which needs correction. I ask the members of this House to vote in favor of this bill to appropriate this money to this committee.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Kane.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Kane, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. KANE. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. Speaker, in the event that I should introduce a resolution in the same manner for the bituminous coal fields would the gentleman vote in favor of it?

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. KANE. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of parliamentary inquiry?

Mr. KANE. Mr. Speaker, is it permissible for a member to bargain his vote?

The SPEAKER. The Chair informs the gentleman from Cambria that his question is not a proper question. The question before the House is on the bill.

Mr. HERMANSEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I would like to say for the benefit of Mr. Haluska that there is quite a different question in the anthracite and bituminous fields. Anthracite is actually losing its market, whereas the bituminous field is overdeveloping its market, and a similar investigation would not be required there. I think it is a very proper bill, and I ask the members of the House to vote for it.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

In the House of Representatives, April 17, 1935.

Whereas, The United States Government has recently completed a large and beautiful Naval Hospital at the Navy Yard, located at Philadelphia; and

Whereas, The grounds immediately surrounding the aforesaid hospital are being used as a public dumping ground, on which there is continually being dumped ashes, rubbish and waste and which is being blown into the hospital and has been causing much annoyance, as well as being a possible source of disease, and

Whereas, The waste and rubbish on these surrounding grounds is slowly smoldering and giving off obnoxious fumes and smoke which in many cases increases the discomfort and the pain and suffering of the patients in the aforesaid hospital; therefore be it

Resolved, That the mayor and the council of Philadelphia which has jurisdiction over these grounds, order the discontinuance of all dumping upon the immediate grounds surrounding the United States Naval Hospital at the Navy Yard at Philadelphia, and to prohibit the setting of fires to the waste thereon and to institute a program for the removal of this unsightly, unsanitary and disease producing area and the replacing thereof by an area marked by modern beautification through landscape gardening.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give its unanimous consent to the immediate consideration of the resolution? Are there objections?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Mr. REISING. Mr. Speaker, I would like to have the sponsor of this bill explain it in detail so we will understand it better.

Mr. PETERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill is an amendment to the Township Code of Townships of the first class. As the act now reads it is not clear whether the township commissioners may do away with the occupational tax. In my township we wish to do away with it, and to give the commissioners the opportunity of doing away with the occupational tax. This simply makes the act clear that they may do so. It is not an additional tax.

Provided That all acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith be and the same are hereby repealed

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BERNHARD. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, ever since the Civil War, Pennsylvania has taken care of and educated the orphans of her veterans. At the present time, Pennsylvania maintains a wonderful home for the orphans of Veterans on the outskirts of a small town called Scotland, in the beautiful Cumberland Valley, just forty-seven miles South of Harrisburg. It is at this home that orphans are prepared to face the world as useful citizens. When the home was established, it was compulsory for the pupils to leave the home at the age of sixteen years, whether they were really prepared or not, to begin a new life. Later on, it was amended so as to make it permissible to remain until they became eighteen years of age. This bill extends the time to nineteen years of age. This will make it possible for these orphans to face the world with an education on a par with our high school education of today. Orphans of World War Veterans are now entering the Home.

You might be asking yourselves the question why I am so interested in this bill to extend the age to nineteen years. Just thirty-four years ago on the 14th day of this month, I was a pupil in this Home and had attained the age of sixteen years. The Superintendent in charge at that time was Captain William Skinner of Fulton County. On that day, he presented me with a suitcase and, if I remember correctly, that suitcase contained several pairs of socks, an extra shirt, and probably several ties. All my belongings were in that suitcase. I immediately secured a position that paid the enormous salary of sixteen dollars per month, but the landlady demanded fifteen dollars of that salary.

I am appealing to you to give the boys and girls in this Home a break by going along one hundred per cent with this bill so as to give them a proper education to face the battle of life.

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 898, entitled:

An Act requiring all persons associations copartnerships and corporations conducting any business to have displayed at such business place the names of the owners or the names which the owners are lawfully entitled to use

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Mr. NAGEL. Mr. Speaker, I would like the sponsor of this bill to explain to the House its provisions.

Mr. WEIDEMANN. Mr. Speaker, we would like to have the right to have the different firms place the name on their business places. We would like to have the company name placed upon their place of business. John Smith and Company or whatever it is.

Mr. NAGEL. What is the object of having such a bill enacted into law?

Mr. WEIDEMANN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the police departments in the state would like to have the right to have the different firms place the name on their place of business so in case any papers are to be served they will know the proper party upon whom to serve the papers.

Mr. NAGEL. Mr. Speaker, does this bill provide that in case it is individuals, half a dozen perhaps in a firm, that all of those names will have to be displayed?

Mr. WEIDEMANN. Mr. Speaker, it does not so long as they have a name, so the proper parties can be served; that is all that is necessary.

Mr. NAGEL. Mr. Speaker, will the sponsor of this bill tell us whether or not there is anything provided in this bill as to the size of the lettering, whether or not if the name of this firm was written on a pastage stamp and place on the front of a building, whether it would fulfill the requirements of the bill?

Mr. WEIDEMANN. Mr. Speaker, it would.

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the sponsor of this bill?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Weidemann, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WEIDEMANN. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, will the sponsor of this bill explain whether every little candy store, or cigar store or shoe store in every little hamlet throughout the state will have to go to the expense of having their name printed on the window?

Mr. WEIDEMANN. Mr. Speaker, we are not representing the painters' association. So long as the name is known and placed some where in the store that is sufficient.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 893, entitled:

An Act providing for the payment of the compensation medical and hospital expenses of policemen and firemen by cities boroughs towns and townships who are injured in or taken sick as a result of the performance of their duty and providing that absence during such injury or sickness shall not reduce any usual sick leave period

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. EROE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, on the calendar this bill reads "Who are injured in or taken sick". I wish to call the attention of the House to the fact that this bill was amended and this clause stricken out. It only applies to injuries.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, the bill now before the House is one of those which the chairman of the Republican Steering Committee advised me would not be called up this evening, therefore I would like to ask the gentleman from Lawrence if he will not place this bill upon the postponed calendar?

Mr. EROE. Mr. Speaker, there never was any such agreement made by me, and I see no reason to postpone this bill.

The SPEAKER. The Chair was informed and was present when it was agreed before the evening session that we would not bring up controversial bills, so if the gentleman from Lawrence, Mr. Eroe, is agreeable the Chair would like to suggest that the bill be placed on the postponed calendar, because quite a few members are absent at the present time.

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. EROE. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1005, as follows:

An Act requiring tax collectors to secure from banks banking institutions or trust companies a bond to secure payment of deposits of all tax moneys deposited therein by such tax collector secured by a surety company authorized to transact business within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or a depository agreement secured by the deposit of bonds or interest bearing securities of the United States the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or any city borough township or school district in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That all tax collectors before depositing any tax moneys in any banks banking institutions or trust companies shall secure from such depositories a bond or bonds to secure payment of the deposits of such tax moneys secured by a surety company authorized to transact business within the Commonwealth or in lieu of such surety bond or bonds the deposit of tax funds may be secured by the deposit with any bank or trust company other than the depository within the Commonwealth which may be agreed upon of bonds or other interest bearing obligations of the United States of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or of bonds of any city borough township or school district of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania the total amount of such bonds or obligations thus deposited measured by their actual market value shall be equal at all times to one hundred twenty per centum of the amount of the deposits All such bonds and obligations shall be accompanied by a proper assignment or power of attorney for their transfer and in the event of the failure of the depository to pay the full amount of such deposits such bonds and the proceeds of the sale thereof shall belong to the tax collector until he shall receive from the depository the full amount of the deposit made by him Provided That any such tax moneys may be insured with the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any other corporation hereafter organized by the United States for the purpose of insuring deposits up to the amount to which such corporation is or may hereafter be authorized to insure deposits in any one name and when so insured the tax collector shall not require such banking institution to furnish additional bond insurance or security to cover the amount of such deposits so insured

Section 2 This act shall become effective immediately upon its passage and approval by the Governor

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. MOUL. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Weidemann, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WEIDEMANN. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. MOUL. Mr. Speaker, I am entirely in sympathy with the idea of this bill. However, I question whether we will be able to carry it out in case it becomes a law. This bill requires a tax collector to receive either a depository bond from the bank that has tax money on deposit, or that that tax money be placed in another bank and United States Treasury bonds be taken therefor. At the present time it is rather difficult to secure such a thing as a depositary bond. This bill would require that the tax money be placed in the bank, and if that bank would place that money in a neighboring bank and that bank placed treasury bonds in the neighboring bank, what would be the effect of this law if the bank would refuse to take the money from the tax collector?

Mr. WEIDEMANN. Mr. Speaker, this is one of the State township commissioners' bills, and they claim that they do feel that this man would have the right to be responsible for the tax collectors' money. It is the township commissioners' bill, and as I understand it, the money collected by the tax collector, who in first class townships is also the treasurer; that the commissioners feel that they should be responsible for the township's money, leaving it up to the tax collector to furnish a sufficient bond for the tax collector's portion of the money. Is that clear?

Mr. MAUL. Mr. Speaker, the real difficulty at the present time is with the tax collector and again the matter of the depository bond is completely eliminated at the present time.

Mr. WEIDEMANN. Mr. Speaker, the only trouble is that the tax collector's money happens to be a portion of the township's, a portion of the county's and a portion of the school board's and the townships are not planning for the entire amount.

Mr. MOUL. Mr. Speaker, would it not be better that the township have authority to designate the depositary?

Mr. WEIDEMANN. It would in some cases, but they have found through the state they have had trouble in doing that.

Mr. MOUL. Mr. Speaker, what would be the effect if the bank refused to take it? The bank wouldn't gain anything by doing it and if they refused to take it, it would actually be a loss to them.

Mr. WEIDEMANN. Mr. Speaker, it would be up to the tax collector then to furnish a bond to satisfy the township commission.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 1119, Printer's No. 404 on page 15 of today's calendar bills on final passage postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. WOODSIDE.

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1119, entitled:

An Act to further amend section five of the act approved the thirteenth day of June one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six (Pamphlet Laws five hundred fifty-one) entitled "An act relating to roads highways and bridges" decreasing minimum widths of certain roads.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. REISING. Mr. Speaker, I would like to have the sponsor of this bill explain it.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, under the present law it is impossible to open any street or have any street or any road of any type taken over by the township supervisors unless that road is thirty-three feet in width. That provision is perfectly proper and I think should exist as to all main public highways. However, in some of the townships there are built-up sections in which there is a road which is commonly known in boroughs as an alley. The township supervisors are perfectly willing to take over and maintain these alleys if they have authority under the law to do so. They do not have that authority if that alley is less than thirty-three feet in width. There is no necessity for that alley to be thirty-three feet in width, and to open an alley thirty-three feet in width in many instances would involve the taking of garages or property on both sides and create considerable damage. I have in mind a particular instance in which there are a number of houses located along the state highway. They have been paying road taxes for a number of years yet not one cent has ever been spent on any road near their property. They have in the rear of their property an alley which they maintain and must maintain themselves. This bill makes it possible in cases like that for the township supervisor to take over this alley. As I understand it, the township supervisors are in favor of this bill and satisfield to have it enacted into law.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were atken and were as follows, viz:

STATEMENT BY MR. RUTH

Mr. RUTH asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker, the next two bills, House Bill 1611 and House Bill No. 1631 are tax bills, revenue measures. Before the minority floor leader left today we agreed that since they are both on the Republican platform and on the Democratic platform we should let these bills go without opposition. They are on both platforms.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I am very sorry to raise this question but I was not at the conference held between the Speaker and the Democratic floor leader, and the chairman of the Republican Steering Committee, therefore I am not able to state just what the agreement was. On the list of the bills I find both House Bill 1611 and House Bill 1631. I do not doubt the statement, of course, of the Democratic floor leader.

The SPEAKER. The Chair can vouch for the statement of the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Ruth. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin, stated that inasmuch as these bills were on the platforms of both the Democrats and the Republicans they might as well be passed and he would agree to have them passed.

RESOLUTIONS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Mr. SOWERS. (Concurrent) RESOLUTION No. 127.

In the House of Representatives, April 17, 1935.

A Joint Resolution Petitioning the Congress of the United States of America to call a National Convention to adopt an amendment to the Constitution of the United States of America, authorizing and empowering the Congress of the United States of America to pass Income Tax Laws taxing all of the incomes of individuals and corporations irrespective of the sources from which they are derived.

And taxing all of the income of individuals and corporations whether derived from interest bearing obligations of the United States, one of the States, or Territories thereof, or of any Government or Governmental function, or derived from any source whatever.

Whereas, great injustice, in the levying of the Income Tax, has arisen by reason of the exemption from taxation of the income of obligations of the United States, States, Territories and sub-divisions thereof, and

Whereas the Congress of the United States on application of the Legislatures of two-thirds of the several States may call a Convention for proposing Amendments, and

Whereas it is the desire of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to make application to Congress to call a convention for proposing the Amendments hereinafter mentioned,

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the General Assembly or Legislature of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby applies to the Congress of the United States of America to call a National Constitutional convention to adopt an Amendment thereto of the following nature and character to wit:—

"Congress shall have power to impose an Income Tax on all of the incomes of individuals, corporations, entities of any kind or nature whatsoever, irrespective of whether such income is derived from the obligations of the United States, the States, Territories of the United States, or from any other Governmental subdivision or function and shall not have power to exempt from taxation any particular kind of income, but may only grant uniform exemptions to individuals, and all parts of laws inconsistent herewith shall be null and void."

Section 2. It shall be the duty of the proper officers of the House of Representatives and the Senate of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to notify by sending duly certified copies hereof to the President of the United States of America and the Senate and the House of Representatives of the United States of America and the Legislatures of the various states of the United States of America of the passage of this resolution by the Legislature or General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Referred to the Committee on Constitutional Amendments.

By Mr. SHEPARD. (Concurrent) RESOLUTION No. 128.

In the House of Representatives, April 17, 1935.

Whereas, The President and Congress, in order to alleviate unemployment in developing various public works; and

Whereas, In the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, there is planned a construction and extension of the Market Street subway to Fifty-Second Street, and the removal of the Elevated Structure; and

Whereas, The work of equipping said subway extension and the removel of the Elevated Structure, would give employment to many persons now unemployed; and

Whereas, The full completion of this project would result in great usefulness to the citizens of the entire City of Philadelphia, and West Philadelphia in particular; therefore be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concur), that the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania respectfully memorialize the President and Congress of the States to consider the advisibility and feasibility of including within the public work program, the extension of the Market Street Subway to Fifty-second Street, and the removal of the Elevated Structure; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this Resolution be transmitted by the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives and the Chief Clerk of the Senate, to the President of the United States, the Vice President, and the President of the Senate and to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to all the Senators and Representatives in the Congress of the United States from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Referred to the Committee on Cities.

By Mr. SHREINER. RESOLUTION No. 129.

In the House of Representatives, April 17, 1935.

Whereas, It is the firm belief of most Pennsylvanians that moneys expended for unemployment relief within this Commonwealth, from whatever source, should be to the greatest degree possible in the form of work relief; and

Whereas, It is equally generally held that such work relief should be, whenever possible, employed in the construction of permanent and lasting improvements beneficial to all citizens; and

Whereas, One of the most important and costliest of all financial burdens upon this Commonwealth and the political sub-divisions thereof is the furnishing and maintenance of proper highway transportation facilities; and

Whereas, It is believed and hoped that a great portion of such work relief contributions from both Federal and State agencies will be expended in the dual capacity of relieving this burden and furnishing employment; and

Whereas, Modern conditions render increasingly necessary not only additional highways but highways of proper width, construction and design; and

Whereas, The construction of narrow or temporary highways is dangerous and uneconomical in view of the present day tremendous vehicular demands upon such highways; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, By the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, that the authorities, both State and National, charged with distribution of work relief moneys, be requested to insist that the portions of such moneys expended in the construction of highways in this Commonwealth which are portions of the primary system of highways be constructed so as to safely support and allow at least three lanes of traffic

Referred to the Committee on Highways.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. William E. Howard, D. D., offered the following prayer:

O God, our Heavenly Father, at the approach to our beautiful Capitol are engraved in stone two striking mottoes. One proclaims "In God We Trust." Grant that none of us may make this solemn declaration a mere empty platitude. Save us from the error of trusting in ourselves instead of Thee.

Another motto, cut into one of the pillars forming the gateway of our Commonwealth's shrine, declares that those who enact and execute laws therein shall have "Truth for Authority." How shall we know the truth except Thou teach it unto us? How shalt Thou teach it unto us except we sit at Thy feet? Thou art the source of all truth. Thou, indeed, art Truth.

If we are motivated by any desires or purposes other than those expressed by those watchwords which guard the portals of this sacred temple of liberty, forgive us and lead us back into the pathway pointed out by them.

May knowledge of truth revealed to them by Thy spirit inspire the members of this Senate. May every action they take be right, noble and manly, and, above all, sincere. Amen.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEE

M. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. REED (Dauphin). from the Committee on State Government reported as amended, the following resolution:

In the Senate, March 18, 1935.

Whereas, It is generally conceded that the most dignified and sedate deliberative body in this Commonwealth is the senior branch of our State's General Assembly, and

Whereas, the atmosphere of gentlemanly decorum which permeated the Senate Chamber through decades of deliberations has been dispelled by neither the flight of time nor changes in personnel constituting its membership, and

Whereas, The gilded brilliance of the traditional aureole by which this Senate Chamber was graced in reflecting the interchange of usual Senatorial courtesies among its members in the past, is in grave danger of being superseded by Stygian clouds, born of distrust and nurtured by discontent, and

Whereas, It should be the sincere desire of all whose great fortune it is to be numbered among the membership of the Senate now in session, to aid in the maintenance of the customary serenity of its deliberations by adhering to established tradition held holy, and

Whereas, It is the consensus of opinion nevertheless, that only those traditional precepts should be deemed sacrosanct which have their origin in purity of purpose and honesty of design, therefore

Be It Resolved, That the members of the Senate of Pennsylvania, now in session assembled, as true representatives of the will of the people of this Commonwealth, do hereby, individually and collectively and without regard to party inclination, solemnly dedicate themselves to henceforward discharge their duties in accordance with the latest tangibly expressed wishes of the vast majority of the electorate of our State as expressed by the voters of Pike and Montgomery Counties; that in the discharge of said duties they shall henceforward allow themselves to be motivated solely by influences inspired by a profound sense of moral consciousness rather than, submitting to promptings predicated on political expediency, seek exculpation for flaunting the will of the people, in the all too-flexible permissiveness of legal technicalities.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I move that the resolution just read be laid on the table.

Mr. CLARK. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. PYTKO. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, who has reported that resolution out.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I will.

Mr. PYTKO. Mr. President, I ask the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, who reported that resolution out, whether the amendment was made by the committee or by the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, himself.

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, the amendment was made by consent of a very large majority of the members of the committee.

Mr. PYTKO. Mr. President, may I ask when the committee meeting was held?

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, it was held this morning.

Mr. PYTKO. Mr. President, may I ask whether notice was given to all the members of the committee?

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I do not know whether all the members of the committee got notice of it.

Mr. PYTKO. Mr. President, I ask whether the members of the Senate had been notified by the Secretary that the committee meeting would take place.

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, as far as I know, they had not.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The motion was agreed to.

The PRESIDENT. Will the maker of the motion concur in the amendment?

Mr. CLARK. Mr. President, I concur.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I accept the amendment.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The motion was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor, being introduced, presented communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor of the Commonwealth, which was read as follows:

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, April 18, 1935.

To the Honorable, the Members of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Unemployment relief will come to a halt in Pennsylvania on Saturday, April 20th, unless Pennsylvania immediately meets the demand of the Federal Emergency Relief Administration that this Commonwealth should contribute its fair share toward the present approximate $20,000,000 monthly costs of relief.

The Federal Emergency Relief Administration has fixed the sum of $5,000,000 as Pennsylvania's fair share of the $20,000,000 monthly relief burden. The Federal Emergency Relief Administration made clear its position at conferences which were held at Washington with Federal Emergency Relief Administratior, Harry L. Hopkins, on March 25th and again on April 11th. In a message which I sent to the General Assembly on April 10th and in another message which I sent to the General Assembly on April 15th, I stressed the urgency of the passage of such tax legislation which would insure Pennsylvania's contribution of $5,000,000 monthly when the revenut from such tax legislation became available I asked such action so that the Federal Government would be assured that the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania intends in good faith to provide its fair share of the burden of unemployment relief.

In addition, the State Emergency Relief Board, at a special meeting held Friday, April 12th, adopted a resolution requesting the Legislature to pass adequate tax legislation during the current week so that unemployment relief in this Commonwealth would not terminate on Saturday.

Despite the urgency of this situation, the Republican majority in the Senate has persistently refused to enact such tax legislation which would enable Pennsylvania to carry on unemployment relief, in accordance with the position taken by the Federal Emergency Relief Administration which has paid the entire cost of unemployment relief in Pennsylvania between January 1, 1935 and the present time, amounting to $68,000,000, without the State contributing one single dollar. The Federal Emergency Relief Administrator has asked that Pennsylvania pass a tax program which will insure that Pennsylvania will contribute $5,000,000 monthly as its fair share of the costs of unemployment relief for at least the next year. Despite the fact that on February 12, 1935, more than two months ago, I submitted in my Budget Message a program which would comply with the stand of the Federal Relief Administration, the Republican majority in the Senate has blocked the passage of such tax legislation without submitting its own tax program. When the Republican caucus finally submitted its budget and tax program to the Administration at a conference yesterday, April 17th, that program provided for an allocation of $57,000,000 for unemployment relief during the two-year period beginning June 1, 1935. When I requested the Chairman of the Republican caucus that its budget be so phrased that the $57,000,000 allocated under that program for unemployment relief be made available if necessary for expenditure during the first year of the biennium, my request was summarily rejected.

The tax program which I submitted on February 12th provided not only for unemployment relief for the two-year period beginning June 1st, but also for unemployment relief for the balance of the present biennium.

Avoiding its proper duty to enact tax legislation which would provide for adequate unemployment relief for the six week period between April 15th and June 1st, as it has for the following two year budget period, the Republican majority in the Senate has instead enacted four bills which provide for the taking of $5,000,000 from special funds which for the most part belong to counties and municipalities as their share of the liquid fuels tax and the liquor license fund. These counties and municipalities have included their probable receipts from these sources in setting up their own budgets for this year and will suffer, should these funds be taken by the State. These same counties and municipalities and various political subdivisions have already suffered through the action of the Legislature at its 1934 Special Session in transferring $13,843,000 from these special funds to unemployment relief instead of levying taxes as should have been done.

I find myself in the position today of having to make a choice between seeing two million unemployed Pennsylvanians face starvation, privation and indescribable hardship after midnight Saturday, or accepting the stopgap program which has been offered by the Republican majority in the Senate. Rather than see these two million unemployed needy men, women and children suffer starvation and privation, I recommend to the Democratic majority in the House of Representatives that it enact the transfer measures sponsored by the Republican majority in the Senate. I make this recommendation, although I feel most strongly that this program of tapping special funds to evade the duty of taxation is wrong in principle and will inevitably impose increased taxation by the local communities which are being deprived of these special funds.

In a telephone conversation with Federal Emergency Relief Administrator Hopkins today, I apprised him of the situation and at my earnest request he agreed to continue unemployment relief to Pennsylvania from April 15 to May 15, 1935, upon the contribution of the $5,000,000 which will be made available by reason of these transfers.

In granting my request, however, the Federal Emergency Relief Administrator stressed the fact that it is imperative that Pennsylvania shall enact a tax program which will insure that Pennsylvania will contribute $5,000,000 a month for unemployment relief for at least the next year.

In view of the situation which I have just recited, I again make the request that the Republican majority in the Senate immediately proceed to enact a tax program which will conform with the position taken by the Federal Emergency Relief Administration, so that Pennsylvania may be assured of receiving adequate relief for its 2,000,000 unemployed and needy.

The passage of the transfer bills referred to will insure unemployment relief in Pennsylvania until May 15th. The responsibility rests upon the Republican majority in the Senate as to whether unemployment relief will continue after May 15th.

GEORGE H. EARLE.

The PRESIDENT. The communication from His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth will be made a matter of record in the Journal.

Let us pray. Our God, Creator and Father, we thank Thee today for the wisdom with which Thou did inspire our forefathers who shaped and moulded our system of government. We thank Thee that we may worship Thee in our land according to the dictates of our own conscious.

In the House of Representatives, April 18, 1935.

Whereas, Dissatisfaction with the administration of direct and work relief is widespread in the County of Schuylkill, allegations are made that the Schuylkill County Emergency Relief Board, and the National Reemployment Bureau, and other agencies dealing with relief, are not using their powers consistent with the best interests of those in need, that misery is widespread; that improper and incompetent personnel is being employed; that political activity is being indulged in and aid granted on a political basis; that discrimination on account of race, color, and creed is practiced; and that husbands and wives are both employed, or one employed when the other has employment elsewhere; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Speaker of the House of Representatives is hereby authorized to appoint a committee of five members of the House, whose duty it shall be to thoroughly and impartially investigate the Schuylkill County Emergency Relief Board, and the National Reemployment Bureau in said countw, or any other governmental agency dealing with relief, and the personnel thereof, with a view of determining whether the allegations set forth in the preamble hereof, are true, and to make report thereof to the House of Representatives as early as possible;

Resolved, That the said committees shall have power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman requesting and commanding any person or persons to appear before them and to answer any such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the committee, and to produce such books, papers, records and documents, as the committee may deem necessary. Such subpoenas may be served upon any person, and shall have the force and effect of subpoenas issued out of the courts of this Commonwealth. Each member of said committee shall have the power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before the committee. Any person who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to testify before said committee, or to produce any papers, books, records or ducuments, shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of the Commonwealth in such cases;

Resolved, That said committee shall have the further right and authority to issue a requisition to the aforesaid board, bureau, or agency, for such stenographic help, or service as it may deem necessary under the circumstances, in the taking of testimony and the conduct of hearings, et cetera.

In the House of Representatives, April 18, 1935.

Whereas, The Honorable John H. Dent was called in the midst of the session, Monday evening, April 15, 1935, to return to his home as a result of serious illness of his mother, and

RESOLUTION NO. 24

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time Resolution No. 24, Printer's No. 704.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, January 22, 1935.

Whereas, The installation of loud speakers in the Hall of this House has resulted in great convenience to the Members and in a clearer understanding of questions discussed upon the floor of the House and

Whereas, The installation of at least seven microphones on the floor of the House would greatly expedite the business of the House and aid the members thereof to follow the debates and discussions on measures brought before the House, and

Whereas, The R C A Manufacturing Company Incorporated of Camden New Jersey has verbally offered to install the said mocrophones on the floor of the House with other necessary equipment for a free trial by the House for at least thirty days with the understanding that the House cannot obligate the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to buy the same and if the same is satisfactory to the House and the General Assembly decides to buy the same after such trial the said Company will go into open competition and bid with others in accordance with the law now therefore be it

Resolved by this House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania that the verbal offer of the R C A Manufacturing Company Incorporated to install seven microphones on the floor of the House and other necessary equipment for a free trial thereof for at least thirty days be accepted and that the Department of Property and Supplies is hereby requested to aid and assist said corporation in and about the said work and with the said corporation proceed at once with the said installation and be it further

Resolved that a copy of this Resolution be forthwith transmitted by the Speaker of this House to the Secretary of the Department of Property and Supplies of the Commonwealth to the R C A Manufacturing Company Incorporated Camden New Jersey or its distributor L. P. Clark

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, the R. C. A. Manufacturing Company through its representative offered to give this House a free trial of at least seven microphones placed at different points on the floor of the House and so arrange them that at least three persons could speak at one and the same time. Now, their proposition obligates us to nothing; we don't have to accept it after we have tried it. If we like it we can approve it or reject it, whatever we want to do, and I would ask every member to vote for the resolution.

Mr. MOOMAW. Mr. Speaker and members of this House, I was on the sub-committee of the Committee on State Government to consider that offer, and I heartily concur in the remarks of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, with regard to this matter.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was adopted.

MEMORIALIZING F. E. R. A. TO CONTINUE RELIEF FUNDS

Mr. JONES offered a resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent that it be read.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 18, 1935.

Whereas, His Excellency, the Governor, has represented to the General Assembly that the sum of two hundred and three millions of dollars in excess of the customary needs of this Commonwealth will be required for the coming biennium; and

Whereas, One hundred and twenty million dollars of that amount is estimated to be necessary for unemployment relief; and

Whereas, The F. E. R. A. Administrator has warned Pennsylvania that no more relief moneys will be advanced to this Commonwealth from Federal sources unless the furnishing of at least five millions per month be provided from State sources; and

Whereas, Regardless of political recriminations between parties, it is a stupendous undertaking to provide the revenue so stipulated to be necessary; and

Whereas, Members of both houses, under their constitutional oaths and with an honest desire to represent their constituents fairly and well, must study and weigh with caution the various proposed measures to accomplish this purpose; now, therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania memorialize the F. E. R. A. Administrator to continue contributions, as before, to unemployment relief in Pennsylvania, at least until the first day of June, 1935; and, be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be sent by the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives to his Excellency, the President of the United States, and to the Hon. Harry Hopkins, Federal Relief Administrator.

The SPEAKER. The resolution will be filed with the Clerk.

Mr. COHEN in the Chair.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 950, as follows:

An Act withholding increases in rates by electric light gas telephone and water companies until after thirty days' notice thereof has been given to their customers and the same have been approved by the Public Service Commission and providing for the procedure thereunder

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That no increase in rates or any change in or discontinuance of any classification rules regulations contracts or practices resulting in an increase in rates by any electric light gas telephone or water company shall become effective until thirty days after individual notices of such increase change or discontinuance have been given by the company to each of its customers and until such increase change or discontinuance has first been approved by the Public Service Commission Provided however That if the Commission fails to approve or disapprove such increase change or discontinuance within a period of ninety days after said notice then the public service company may put such increase change or discontinuance into effect by filing with the commission a bond in such reasonable amount, with such sureties, and of such form as shall be approved by the commission, conditioned upon the refund, in a manner to be prescribed by order of the commission, to the persons entitled thereto of the amount of the excess if the rate or rates so put into effect are finally determined to be excessive, and the payment of the penalties, costs, and fees in this act provided for; or there may be substituted for such bond other arrangements satisfactory to the commission for the protection of the parties interested. The commission shall have power to fix and determine the amount of the refund or reparation, if any, to be paid to the parties entitled thereto, either with or without a separate petition therefor, as the commission may determine in its order pertaining to the reasonableness or unreasonableness of such rate or rates, and shall make such further order, with respect to the said refund or reparation, as it may deem necessary and proper to expedite and to facilitate the payment or adjustment, by credits or otherwise, of the said refund or reparation. The commission shall regard and treat any complaint or petition for refund or reparation by one or more consumers, shippers, or patrons, or any proceeding initiated on its own motion, as made in a representative capacity and as if filed or instituted in behalf of all consumers, shippers or patrons affected by the rate or rates in question, and, in its order for refund or reparation, it shall fix and determine the amount or amounts of refund or reparation which shall be awarded or credited to each consumer, shipper, or patron affected. If the public service company fails, after written demand, to make the refund or to give the proper credit, in accordance with the order of the commission, within ninety days after such final determination, any person entitled to such refund may sue therefor in any court of this Commonwealth of competent jurisdiction, and be entitled to recover, in addition to the amount of the refund, a penalty of fifty per centum of the amount of the said refund, together with all court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees; but no suit may be maintained for that purpose unless instituted within one year after such final determination. Any number of persons entitled to such refund may join as plaintiffs and recover their several claims in a single action, in which action the court will render a judgment severally for each plaintiff as his interest may appear."

Section 2 The individual notices provided for in section one of this act shall in each case be mailed or delivered to the same address of each customer as is used for mailing or delivering the bills for service Such notice shall not be a part of any bill for service but shall be plainly and conspicuously written or printed on a separate piece of paper and shall clearly show the old rate the new rate and the amount and effect of the increase

Section 3 Where a new schedule of rates or change in or discontinuance of any classification rule regulation contract or practice is filed under existing law by any electric light gas telephone or water company which contains or results in an increase in rates the procedure thereon shall be the same as if a complaint against such increase change or discontinuance had been filed

Section 4 All acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

Section 5 This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. REISING. Mr. Speaker, I would like to have the sponsor of this bill explain just briefly what it means.

Mr. MOUL. I will, Mr. Speaker. This bill changes the present procedure that is followed when a rate increase is offered by a utility company. At the present time all that is necessary in order that a rate increase be put into effect is that the utility company notify the Commission that the company intends to put an increase into effect. Thirty days after that notice has been given to the Commission, if the Commission does not act, that rate becomes effective and immediately the utility company begins to charge it. That charge will continue until the Commission takes some action. In the past there have been cases where the Commission has not acted for a long, long time. In that case the consumer is forced to pay the rate without having had a proper hearing. This bill as it is amended at the present time changes that procedure to the following: If this bill becomes a law, it will require that the utility company notify each individual consumer that a rate increase is being proposed, showing the exact increase, so that the consumer will know what is about to happen. Thirty days after that notice has been sent, the Commission can act. In that respect it is similar to the present law. The Commission can act thirty days after the notice has been sent out. However, if the Commission does not act, then the rate can not become effective until sixty additional days. After sixty additional days, if the Commission does not act, then they can put the increased rate into effect, providing a bond is filed that will protect the consumer in case later on the Commission decides that it is an unjust increase.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from York, Mr. Moul.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from York permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MOUL. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman have any objection to having this bill placed on the postponed calendar, so that it can be called up Monday night?

Mr. MOUL. Mr. Speaker, that will be satisfactory to me.

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2122, entitled:

An Act providing for the annual registration with the Department of Labor and Industry of establishments where persons are employed requiring certain statistical data relating to employment and accidents to be furnished the department authorizing the department to prescribe an annual registration fee and imposing a penalty for violation of the act

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, will the sponsor of this bill explain its provisions to the House?

Mr. COLEMAN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill is an administration measure that will, figuratively speaking, put the hand of the Secretary of Labor and Industry of this Commonwealth upon the industrial and business pulse of the state. It requires industrial and business establishments to furnish certain statistical information that heretofore has been rather difficult to obtain.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, how much does it cost the individuals and so on?

Mr. COLEMAN. Mr. Speaker, under the terms of this bill all business and industrial establishments of the state must register annually with the Department of Labor on or before the first of June. There is a sort of graduated scale of fees: one dollar is the minimum and five dollars is the maximum depending upon the number of employes and the fee, of course, to be determined by the Secretary of Labor.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the bill is House Bill 2122, Printer's No. 617. You will find that the bill provides for every establishment to register whether there are a few employes or many employes. You will find that a fee of one dollar is charged. You will also find that the bill provides for a penalty. Now, many businesses start and stop and many a man who starts a business may overlook the registering and thus may be subject to this penalty. A business may only last a month or two and it seems to me that the bill as drawn is too drastic and that it ought to exempt those people that are about to start in business and stop in a month or two.

I would ask you to vote "no" on this bill or to have it placed on the postponed calendar to be called upon Monday night.

Mr. REISING. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lackawanna permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. COLEMAN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. REISING. Mr. Speaker, are we to understand that illegitimate businesses, such as one-man clubs, speakeasies, gambling places and places of that sort will have to register under this bill?

Mr. COLEMAN. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman's question, it is my understanding that under the terms of this bill every industrial and every business establishment including of course every store in every little hamlet within the confines of the Commonwealth are obliged to register under the terms of this bill. The only ones excluded are the doctors, lawyers, dentists and professional men generally.

Mr. REISING. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the explanation is entirely satisfactory to me and I am inclined to think that this is one of the real bills to exterminate crime and corruption from our midst and I will ask the members to vote "aye" on this bill.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the sponsor of this bill permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. COLEMAN. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman where in the provisions of this bill he can find any exception for any person who employs help.

Mr. COLEMAN. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman's question, for the purpose of clarification it is my intention to put the bill on the postponed calendar and to offer amendments that will specifically exclude lawyers, doctors, dentists and professional men generally.

Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SOWERS. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. COLEMAN. Mr. Speaker, I have already said that I would agree to put the bill on the postponed calendar and offer the amendments suggested. If I do so, may I assume that when reciprocity presents itself it will come in full measure from the Republican side of the House and that they will support it one hundred per cent?

The SPEAKER. The interrogation is out of order at this time.

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. COLEMAN. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

The motion was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, April 18, 1935.

To the Honorable, the Members of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Unemployment relief will come to a halt in Pennsylvania on Saturday, April 20th, unless Pennsylvania immediately meets the demand of the Federal Emergency Relief Administration that this Commonwealth should contribute its fair share toward the present approximate $20,000,000 monthly costs of relief.

The Federal Emergency Relief Administration has fixed the sum of $5,000,000 as Pennsylvania's fair shade of the $20,000,000 monthly relief burden. The Federal Emergency Relief Administration made clear its position at conferences which were held at Washington with Federal Emergency Relief Administrator, Harry L. Hopkins, on March 25th and again on April 11th. In a message which I sent to the General Assembly on April 10th and in another message which I sent to the General Assembly on April 15th, I stressed the urgency of the passage of such tax legislation which would insure Pennsylvania's contribution of $5,000,000 monthly when the revenues from such tax legislation became available. I asked such action so that the Federal Government would be assured that the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania intends in good faith to provide its fair share of the burden of unemployment relief.

In addition, the State Emergency Relief Board, at a special meeting held Friday, April 12th, adopted a resolution requesting the Legislature to pass adequate tax legislation during the current week so that unemployment relief in this Commonwealth would not terminate on Saturday.

Despite the urgency of this situation, the Republican majority in the Senate has persistently refused to enact such tax legislation which would enable Pennsylvania to carry on unemployment relief, in acordance with the position taken by the Federal Emergency Relief Administration which has paid the entire cost of unemployment relief in Pennsylvania between January 1, 1935, and the present time, amounting to $68,000,000, without the State contributing one single dollar. The Federal Emergency Relief Administrator has asked that Pennsylvania pass a tax program which will insure that Pennsylvania will contribute $5,000,000 monthly as its fair share of the costs of unemployment relief for at least the next year. Despite the fact that on February 12, 1935, more than two months ago, I submitted in my Budget Message a program which would comply with the stand of the Federal Relief Administration, the Republican majority in the Senate has blocked the passage of such tax legislation without submitting its own tax program. When the Republican caucus finally submitted its budget and tax program to the Administration at a conference yesterday, April 17th, that program provided for an allocation of $57,000,000 for unemployment relief during the two-year period beginning June 1, 1935. When I requested the Chairman of the Republican caucus that its budget be so phrased that the $57,000,000 allocated under that program for unemployment relief be made available if necessary for expenditure during the first year of the biennium, my request was summarily rejected.

The tax program which I submitted on February 12th provided not only for unemployment relief for the two-year period beginning June 1st, but also for unemployment relief for the balance of the present biennium.

Avoiding its proper duty to enact tax legislation which would provide for adequate unemployment relief for the six week period between April 15th and June 1st, as it has for the following two year budget period, the Republican majority in the Senate has instead enacted four bills which provide for the taking of $5,000,000 from special funds which for the most part belong to counties and municipalities as their share of the liquid fuels tax and the liquor license fund. These counties and municipalities have included their probable receipts from these sources in setting up their own budgets for this year and will suffer, should these funds be taken by the State. These same counties and municipalities and various political subdivisions have already suffered through the action of the Legislature at its 1934 Special Session in transferring $13,843,000 from these special funds to unemployment relief instead of levying taxes as should have been done.

I find myself in the position today of having to make a choice between seeing two million unemployed Pennsylvanians face starvation, privation and indescribable hardship after midnight Saturday, or accepting the stop-gap program which has been offered by the Republican majority in the Senate. Rather than see these two million unemployed needy men, women and children suffer starvation and privation, I recommend to the Democratic majority in the House of Representatives that it enact the transfer measures sponsored by the Republican majority in the Senate. I make this recommendation, although I feel most strongly that this program of tapping special funds to evade the duty of taxation is wrong in principle and will inevitably impose increased taxation by the local communities which are being deprived of these special funds.

In a telephone conversation with Federal Emergency Relief Administrator Hopkins today, I apprised him of the situation and at my earnest request he agreed to continue unemployment relief to Pennsylvania from April 15 to May 15, 1935, upon the contribution of the $5,000,000 which will be made available by reason of these transfers.

In granting my request, however, the Federal Emergency Relief Administrator stressed the fact that it is imperative that Pennsylvania shall enact a tax program which will insure that Pennsylvania will contribute $5,000,000 a month for unemployment relief for at least the next year.

In view of the situation which I have just recited, I again make the request that Republican majority in the Senate immediately proceed to enact a tax program which will conform with the position taken by the Federal Emergency Relief Administration, so that Pennsylvania may be assured of receiving adequate relief for its 2,000,000 unemployed and needy.

The passage of the transfer bills referred to will insure unemployment relief in Pennsylvania until May 15th. The responsibility rests upon the Republican majority in the Senate as to whether unemployment relief will continue after May 15th.

GEORGE H. EARLE.

TRANSFERRING OF FUNDS FOR RELIEF

Mr. RUTH asked and obtained unanimous consent to offer the following resolution which was twice read as follows:

In The House of Representativees, April 18, 1935.

Whereas, It is necessary that the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania contribute its share of the monies necessary for unemployment relief for the months of April and May; and

Whereas, The Federal Relief Administrator requires that the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania shall contribute as its share the sum of Five Million Dollars ($5,000,000) per month either in cash or by the enactment of proper tax legislation indicating the intention of the Commonwealth to contribute said share to relief for the State; and

Whereas, the unemployment relief needs for the year 1935 of the Commonwealth have been provided for up to and including the Fifteenth day of April, 1935, wholly by the National Government; and

Whereas, There is not sufficient money in the General Fund to provide for the Commonwealth's share for the balance of the month of April and May, 1935; and

Whereas, it is of paramount importance that the poor and needy of Pennsylvania shall not be permitted to go hungry or starve;

Therefore, Because no provision has been made by the majority in the Senate of Pennsylvania to meet the requirements of relief in this Commonwealth; it is hereby

Resolved, That the House of Representatives will pass Senate Bill No. 840, transferring One Million Dollars ($1,000,000) from the Liquor Licensee Fund to the General Fund; and Senate Bill No. 841, transferring One Million Dollars from the Motor License Fund to the General Fund; and Senate Bill No. 842, transferring Two Million Dollars ($2,000,000) from the Liquid Fuels Tax Fund to the General Fund; and Senate Bill No. 843, transferring

One Million Dollars ($1,000,000) from the State Stores Fund to the General Fund; and appropriating the total of the said money, to wit Five Million Dollars ($5,000,000) to the State Emergency Relief Board, and providing for the subsequent return from the General Fund of the transferred money.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the Democratic majority accepts this proposition, though believing that it is morally wrong to do so because the majority of this money belongs to the municipalities. It is not our money. We have no moral right to take it from them, but this is done in order to save the millions of people in Pennsylvania who will suffer if we do not concur in these bills. We are doing it just as if a gun were pointed at our heads. This is the last straw, the last thing we can do to keep our people for one month longer.

For a long time this House has passed sufficient and proper tax legislation and the majority in the Senate has refused to pass it or even to consider it. Therefore, this House has done its full duty. We are doing this today only because it is to save the suffering that will come to our people if it is not carried out. It is not our money, but we are taking it simply to save suffering in Pennsylvania.

Mr. FURMAN. Mr. Speaker, on account of the seriousness of the situation I ask for a roll call.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. FURMAN and Mr. VanSICKLE.

The roll was called by the Clerk.

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, because of the importance of this resolution I think the roll should be verified. I, therefore, ask for a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

PERMISSION GRANTED COMMITTEE TO MEET DURING SESSION OF HOUSE

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the Committee on Appropriations be granted permission to meet in the Conference Room at the rear of the House during the session of the House.

The motion was agreed to.

STATEMENT BY MR. FURMAN

Mr. FURMAN asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, today, April 18, was the day set as the deadline for presenting bills to this House. The Legislative Reference Bureau has notified us and we have adopted a resolution in accordance with their wishes that bills that are now in the process of being drafted and which it is not physically possible to get completed today will be permitted to be presented here when we return. That same condition exists in the Attorney General's Department. I believe that it is the wish of this House that those bills that are now in the process of being drafted may be presented here on Monday, and I would like to know whether or not there are any objections to those bills going through the same course as the bills from the Legislative Reference Bureau.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give its unanimous consent as requested by the gentleman from Greene, Mr. Furman? Are there objections? The Chair hears none and consent is granted.

STATEMENT BY MR. SOWERS

Mr. SOWERS asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. SPEAKER and members of the House, it is very gratifying to the Republican party of this House to know that the Democrats have adopted the wisdom of the policy proposed by it and have joined with it in its efforts to save the needy from starving.

Speaking personally I want to reply to the statement made by the opposition leaders that five million dollars is the fair share of Pennsylvania. I submit that that amount is easily one hundred per cent too much. Pennsylvania sends to the National Treasury about seven dollars and fifty cents and from the National Treasury it receives back only about four dollars and fifty cents. It is my opinion that the national government is not generous with Pennsylvania, and it should cease sending Pennsylvania's money to other states to use and see to it that the needy of Pennsylvania are not left to starve.

STATEMENT BY MR. ANDREWS

Mr. ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. SPEAKER and members of the House, I was one of the very small minority that voted against the transfer resolution. I voted against the transfer resolution because I believed that today was the decisive day, I believed that today was the day to take up the challenge of inaction that has characterized the opposition to the taxation program proposed, a program with which I am not in agreement but a program which must be met by suggestions of some sort. An opportunity to face the situation has been neglected. I am sorry that the Democratic majority did not accept the challenge and stay here in session with the general assembly, a going concern, and with the demands for relief of a going concern and settle this thing here and now.

STATEMENT BY MR. HOOPES

Mr. HOOPES asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I have remained silent during the barrage of statements that we have had from both the majority and the minority of this House during the past few weeks on the question of new taxation, but I feel that the time has come when I owe a duty to my constituents to make a statement.

We have heard a great deal about the chiselers on relief and about the waste of relief money and the alleged lack of necessity for expenditures for this purpose. I think it is time we stopped and considered the situation with which we are confronted.

In the report which the State Emergency Relief Board filed with this House in response to the resolution which I introduced at the beginning of the session, they set forth the figures on which they based their estimates for relief for the coming biennium. They estimated that the average number of cases on relief would be four hundred thousand. That report was filed, I believe, on March first and the figures for every week since that time have been substantially in excess of four hundred thousand, and are steadily increasing.

According to the figures that were placed upon every member's desk at the beginning of this week, the average weekly grant for direct relief is $7.33, and yet there are members of this House who have the temerity to get up on the floor and say that we should cut this in half. I should like to see some of those members live on half of $7.33 a week for a few weeks, and I guarantee that they would not believe that the appropriations for relief are excessive.

We cannot expect the Federal government to carry practically the entire burden of relief for the second richest state in the United States. We have the wealth; there is no reason why this Commonwealth should not contribute its just share.

Based upon figures used by the Emergency Relief Board, if we contribute five million dollars we will be only paying thirty-five per cent of the amount that will be necessary for direct relief in Pennsylvania during the coming biennium. Certainly we ought to pay one-third of the cost. I submit that those figures upon which they base their estimates are substantially less than the facts will show.

They are figuring on improved business conditions to make less relief necessary in the coming biennium.

Members of this House, this is my third term in this Assembly, and ever since I have been here the Relief Board and the members of this House in the majority at that time and in the minority now have been taking the position that you didn't need to appropriate very much for relief, and we went home after making insufficient appropriations and haxe come back here every six months during the past four years to make further appropriations.

I think it is about time that we look facts in the face and appropriate enough money to take care of the unemployed so that we do not have to spend half a million dollars that would be better used for relief than to hold a special session every six months. Of course the five hundred dollars comes in very handy for the relief of the members of the legislature, but I do not believe that any member of this House could vote conscientiously for a policy that will cause another special session for that reason.

I think we should study the situation very carefully and we should face the facts. The unemployed instead of getting too much, have been getting too little, and when they say that there is a large percentage of chiselers I submit that there is no evidence that has been submitted to this House to justify any such statement. There probably are a few; the best sort of administration will not be one hundred per cent perfect, and I am not here for one minute apologizing for the administration of relief in Pennsylvania. There is no doubt they have made their mistakes, but if there are some chiselers, there are far more who are not getting enough who will more than make up the difference, and we cannot afford to stand here and consider cutting relief unless we can see something else.

I believe all of us think work relief is better than direct relief, but if you are going to have work relief it is going to cost substantially more as the figures show that it has cost more. It is better, but if its costs more we will have to get money for it,

It is high time that we were facing the facts and stop dawdling around figuring on programs that are going to cut the relief in order to save the taxpayer. It is time for the members of this House to decide right here and now which they care the most for, the taxpayers or the starving unemployed. Their interests are directly conflicting; you must take from the one in order to give to the other.

I submit that it is the duty of this legislature if it is necessary to keep the people of Pennsylvania from starving, to take the last dollar of the rich man's wealth, that it is our duty to do it. Human rights must come before property rights, and I do hope that the investigating committee which has been appointed by the General Assembly will not only look into the question of chiseling and into the question of the persons who are employed on the administration of the relief, but that they will also study the question of the sufficiency of the allowance that has been made, and question of whether or not everybody who is entitled to relief is getting it, and also consider the problem as to whether or not it is likely that we will face inflation which will mean that anything that we do today will be substantially reduced in effect.

I say this again in the hopes that we will not repeat the mistakes that we have been making in the past four general and two special sessions and that we have been doing in the last four months, hoping that somebody else would take care of the problem. That is what we have been doing for four years. The problem is with us; it is up to us to look at it like men, like statesmen if you please, and try to solve it here and now.

RESOLUTION No. 133.

In the House of Representatives, April 18, 1935.

Whereas, The President and Congress, in order to alleviate unemployment, in developing various public works; and

Whereas, In the city of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, there has been constructed an extension to the Broad Street subway, which extension runs from South Street to Snyder Avenue in the city of Philadelphia, and which was built at a cost of $4,000,000; and

Whereas, The said subway extension was completed several years ago, it never was equipped for operation, because the authorities of the city of Philadelphia could not, or would not, secure the necessary funds for such equipment, all to the great loss and inconvenience to the citizens of Philadelphia; and

Whereas, The work of equipping said subway extension would give employment to many persons now unemployed; and

Whereas, The equipping of said subway extension would result in the full completion of a self-liquidating public enforcement of great importance and usefulness to the citizens of Philadelphia; therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania respectfully memorialize the President and Congress of the United States to consider the advisibility and feasibility of including within the public works program the equipping of the South Broad Street subway extension; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this Resolution be transmitted by the Chief Clerk of the House and the Chief Clerk of the Senate, to the President of the United States, the Vice President, and the President of the Senate, and to the speaker of the House of Representatives, and to all the Senators and Representatives in the Congress of the United States from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Referred to the Committee on Judiciary Special.

By Mr. JONES. (Concurrent). RESOLUTION No. 134.

In the House of Representatives, April 18, 1935.

Whereas, His Excellency, the Governor, has represented to the General Assembly that the sum of two hundred and three millions of dollars in excess of the customary needs of this Commonwealth will be required for the coming biennium; and

Whereas, One hundred and twenty million dollars of that amount is estimated to be necessary for unemployment relief; and

Whereas, The F. E. R. A. Administrator has warned Pennsylvania that no more relief moneys will be advanced to this Commonwealth from Federal sources unless the furnishing of at least five millions per month be provided from State sources; and

Whereas, Regardless of political recriminations between parties, it is a stupendous undertaking to provide the revenue so stipulated to be necessary; and

Whereas, Members of both houses, under their constitutional oaths and with an honest desire to represent their constituents fairly and well, must study and weigh with caution the various proposed measures to accomplish this purpose; now, therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania memorialize the F. E. R. A. Administrator to continue contributions, as before, to unemployment relief in Pennsylvania, at least until the first day of June, 1935; and, be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be sent by the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives to his Excellency, the President of the United States, and to the Hon. Harry Hopkins, Federal Relief Administrator.

Referred to the Committee on Judiciary Special.
